whose careers end just as most people's are getting going do with the rest of their lives Crouch speaks from his own experience and discusses with fellow former professionals too just how do you safely release a near seven foot striker back into the wild Peter goes in search of the answer to what his second career might be and encounters stories far more bizarre than anything you'll find on the pitch From the pleasure and pain of management to the lessons we can learn from Jamie Carragher and Joe Cole on not going to seed From those staying in the sport the diehard veterans coaches managers owners and of course the legion of pundits to those moving on to pastures new Peter talks to entrepreneurs men of the cloth eco warriors artists private detectives and budding actors as well as those who've lost their way in addiction crime and NFTs When the final whistle blows it's still all to play for
