Religion and Sport in North America Jeffrey Scholes,Randall Balmer,2022-09-13 From athletes praising God to pastors using sport metaphors in the pulpit the association between sport and religion in North America is often considered incidental Yet religion and sport have been tightly intertwined for millennia and continue to inform shape and critique one another Moreover sport rather than being a solely secular activity is one of the most important sites for debates over gender race capitalism the media and civil religion Traditionally scholarly writings on religion and sport have focused on the question of whether sport is a religion using historical philosophical theological and sociological insights to argue this matter While these efforts sought to answer an important question contemporary issues related to sports were neglected such as globalization commercialization feminism masculinity critical race theory and the ethics of doping This volume contains lively up to date essays from leading figures in the field to fill this scholarly gap It treats religion as an indispensable prism through which to view sports and vice versa This book is ideal for students approaching the topic of religion and sport It will also be of interest to scholars studying sociology of religion sociology of sport religion and race religion and gender religion and politics and sport in general

The Serpent Mind Richard Dibble,2022-08-17 Rick knew that she had some issues What he didn t know was how deep they went Ones of Rick s faults is that he trusts others and wants to help This blinded him to the real problem that he was about to face A problem that no one could imagine except Monica Rick was not prepared for the roller coaster ride of his life A ride that would last eight months with the line between reality and fiction being crossed over so many times it had Rick questioning things he knew to be true It was all very confusing until the day the serpent appeared At that moment it became clear what was going on and what needed to be done
