Once Upon A Temptation:

Once Upon a Time Matthew Lee, 2023-08-02 I wrote a book about moments I titled it Once Upon A Time mainly because in remembering the moments I was writing about I was reimagining life as a dream It is not about a made up fantasy I wished to live but about a very real one that I saw as a dream as a once upon a time seeing its happily ever after It is not about heaven but about earth about everything glorious and heavenly from this earth I live in It is about sins and dirt It is about a dirty life made by a sinless God It is not about Jesus This book is not about Jesus's life but about the creation he made It is not about where Jesus went but about the trail he left not about what he said but about how the storms listened to it It is not about what Jesus could have looked like but about the stares he received It is not about how he matured men but about how he made children of them It is about how he made Sarah laugh and David cry and Thomas doubt and Mary notice This book is about these rather ordinary moments making up a most beautiful dream And what a shame it would be to miss even a single one of them
