Planning Change, Changing Plans Denise E. Murray,2008 Adapting change is crucial to success in any area of work This book provides examples of educational innovation and change and documents 12 different instances of innovative plans all of which while achieving some of the original goals found both impediments and opportunities in the change process

Performative Bodies, Hybrid Tongues Julian Vigo,2010 This book reconsiders the body in literature and makes a case for visual representation as a physical and gesticulative domain for rethinking the constructions of gender nationalism and sexuality Examining literary production from the eleventh century until the present the author argues that the body in contemporary North Africa and Latin America serves as a physical and symbolic terrain upon which sexual textual national racial and linguistic identities are vectored and through which postcolonial and hegemonic antagonisms of power and identity are resolved Rather than embracing third world identity as a residual repository of western thought colonization and linguistic infusion the author suggests that the paradigm of cultural identity in the Maghreb and Latin America is best understood through an examination of the emergent corporeal articulations of subjectivity prevalent in these literatures and visual cultures The text examines the body as a critical landscape through which the various discourses of nationhood gender and sexuality converge in order to construct a reading of the social that neither amasses subjectivity as singular under the rubric of the third world nor couches the other within static notions of gendered sexual or racial identities Breaking New Ground W.
