	Purpose	Example questions	Notes
1 Connect on a personal level	- Open the meeting by checking in on how the person is doing—don't jump straight to work related tasks and updates. - Understand that everyone is different, some feel comfortable sharing a lot about personal lives and others less so, this is true about yourself as well.	- How was your weekend? - How is the search for the math tutor for your son?
2 News and updates	Include company related news or updates that can't wait until a team call or has a particularly large impact on the employee.	Last week we acquired a new account, this is very exciting, and we will all be involved. I will discuss this in our upcoming team meeting but I specifically wanted to mention this to you as it will require a shift in priorities for you for the next two weeks.
3 Job related discussion	- Check in regarding role responsibilities—any specific items that you need an update on or about which you need to share information - Clarify expectations on deliverables in terms of timelines or quality - Make sure to inquire if your employee needs any support	Let's go over your current projects, their status and any areas where you need support.
4 Growth and development	- Check in on development or career goals that have been discussed or spend the time to set them. - If there is not enough time in the meeting to discuss, set a separate meeting dedicated to this topic.	When we last spoke, you wanted to learn more about the Marketing team. How was your meeting with the Marketing Director?
5 Closing	Before ending the meeting, inquire if there is anything else that the employee would like to discuss or needs help with	Is there anything else that that you would like discuss?
