Heidi Grunebaum, 2017-07-28 This work is a meditation on the shaping of time and its impact on living with and understanding atrocity in South Africa in the wake of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission TRC It is an examination of the ways that the institutionalization of memory has managed perceptions of time and transition of events and happenings of sense and emotion of violence and recovery of the past and the new Through this process a public language of memory has been carved into collective modes of meaning It is a language that seems deprived of the hopes dreams and possibilities for the promise of a just and redemptive future it once nurtured Truth commissions are profoundly implicated in the social politics of memorialization Memory as a conceptual historical and experiential discourse about the past relates to the ways in which cruelty is integrated into societal understandings which include cognitive and philosophic frameworks and constructions of social meaning The politics of historical truth of memory and of justice play out in unintended ways There is not only the ongoing struggle for survivors of state terror but also the ways that the everyday shapings of silences the emptiness of reconciliation and the fracturing of hope remain embedded in political life Once Upon a Time Traveler

Joshua Light, 2014-11-11 Three brilliant scientists harness the power to fold time and visit the past and future like a common tourist One scientist formulates a tour of Biblical events because he believes in God but the tour is reluctantly and accidentally traveled by a scientist who does not What will unbelieving eyes see and how will they interpret the most significant supernatural events of all time The tour embraces world history from the beginning of creation and into the future where Biblical prophecy tells us that dangerous people will control the whole world countless millions of people will evaporate and society will plunge into darkness What if a time traveler visited just two years into the future after the Biblical Prophetic clock has already started ticking And then catapulted into the past where Earth is like another planet entirely What kind of world and what kind of tribulation would he find And as an unbeliever how would he respond to it Light deals with the issues of Biblical prophecy recent young earth creation a literal and startling twist on how things were and how things will be Set aside the notions of being left behind and embrace the idea of being brought along in the circuits of Earth s end to end timeline Enter a future we d rather forget and a history that nobody remembers Art, History, and Anachronic
