Global and Local Art Histories Celina Jeffery, Gregory Minissale, 2009-03-26 There are now many books on postcolonial theory yet relatively few of them gather together sustained dynamic and insightful analyses of visuality art and art history outside of hegemonic Euro American themes and concerns Global and Local Art Histories explores what it means to have a global and local experience of art The 15 essays published here suggest ways of interpreting works of art from a broad range of cultural perspectives many of them transcultural Here are voices contesting concepts of history and culture evaluating and exploring global and local identities in a changing world Because of the variety of different approaches and cultural perspectives that Global and Local Art Histories brings together the book presents a unique opportunity to question what we mean by that dangerously globalising category the work of art and art history exploring global approaches that challenge such falsely universalising rubrics

Along the Indian Highway Cathrine Bublatzky, 2019-08-02 This book is an ethnographic study of the travelling art exhibition Indian Highway that presented Indian contemporary art in Europe and China between 2008 and 2012 a significant period for the art world that saw the rise and fall of the national exhibition format It analyses art exhibition as a mobile object and promotes the idea of art as a transcultural product by using participant observation in depth interviews and multi media studies as research method This work encompasses voices of curators artists audiences and art critics spread over different cities sites and art institutions to bridge the distance between Europe and India based on vignettes along the Indian Highway The discussion in the book focuses on power relations the contested politics of representation and dissonances and processes of negotiation in the field of global art It also argues for rethinking analytical categories in anthropology to identify the social role of contemporary art practices in different cultural contexts and also examines urban art and the way national or cultural values are reinterpreted in response to ideas of difference and pluralism Rich in empirical data this book will be useful to scholars and researchers of modern and contemporary art Indian art art and visual culture anthropology art history mobility and transcultural studies
