provide answers to Parmelee's main research question: What function do candidate videos serve in presidential primary campaigns? Findings indicate that these videos, which can run from 5 to 20 minutes in length, serve a clear educational function to explain the candidates' stand on key policy issues. The videos, which are mailed to voters, journalists, and potential donors and shown to Democratic and GOP faithful at party functions, also serve as fundraisers, surrogate speakers, and inoculators. But while the videos share some common functions, each campaign targets its video to a slightly different audience based on the campaign's overall strategy.
