World Bank East Asia and Pacific Economic Update, April 2025

Weltbank, 2025 East Asia and the Pacific remains one of the most dynamic regions in the world Yet when measured against its own past performance and potential the region has under performed Growth in most economies and even output in several Pacific Island economies has not returned to pre pandemic levels Now rising global uncertainty is further dampening regional economic prospects Uncertainty increases financing costs and hurts business and consumer confidence inhibiting investment and consumption However short term uncertainty should not obscure long term trends in globalization climate and demographics that will affect trade growth and jobs in the EAP region These development challenges have been individually discussed in past Updates But an integrated analysis may help policymakers take a longer view through the current fog of uncertainty of what ultimately matters and what needs to be done This report illustrates the benefits of a synchronized three pronged approach harnessing technological change pursuing domestic reforms and deepening international cooperation

Global Financial Stability Report, October 2025 International Monetary, 2025-10-14 Financial stability risks remain elevated amid risks presented by stretched asset valuations growing pressure in sovereign bond markets and the increasing role of nonbank financial institutions NBFIs Despite its deep liquidity the global foreign exchange market remains vulnerable to macrofinancial uncertainty Shocks can raise funding costs widen bid ask spreads and intensify excess exchange rate return volatility These pressures are amplified by structural vulnerabilities including currency mismatches concentrated dealer activity and greater NBFi participation Stress in foreign exchange markets can spill over other asset classes tightening broader financial conditions Increased local currency sovereign bond issuance and domestic absorption have supported emerging market resilience but financial stability risks could arise from heavy borrowing overreliance on narrow investor bases and inadequate policy frameworks

Global Economic Prospects, June 2025 World Bank,2025-06-10 The global economy is facing another substantial headwind emanating largely from an increase in trade tensions and heightened global policy uncertainty For emerging market and developing economies EMDEs the ability to boost job creation and reduce extreme poverty has declined Key downside risks include a further escalation of trade barriers and continued policy uncertainty These challenges are exacerbated by subdued foreign direct investment into EMDEs Global cooperation is needed to restore a more stable international trade environment and scale up support for vulnerable countries grappling with conflict debt burdens and climate change Domestic policy action is also critical to contain inflation risks and strengthen fiscal resilience To accelerate job creation and long term growth structural reforms must focus on raising institutional quality attracting private investment and strengthening human capital and labor markets Countries in fragile and conflict situations face daunting development challenges that will require tailored domestic policy reforms and well coordinated multilateral support
