I Can Read It All by Myself Paul V. Allen,2021-05-28 In the late 1950s Ted Geisel took on the challenge of creating a book using only 250 unique first grade words something that aspiring readers would have both the ability and the desire to read The result was an unlikely children s classic The Cat in the Hat But Geisel didn t stop there Using The Cat in the Hat as a template he teamed with Helen Geisel and Phyllis Cerf to create Beginner Books a whole new category of readers that combined research based literacy practices with the logical insanity of Dr Seuss The books were an enormous success giving the world such authors and illustrators as P D Eastman Roy McKie and Stan and Jan Berenstain and beloved bestsellers such as Are You My Mother Go Dog Go Put Me in the Zoo and Green Eggs and Ham The story of Beginner Books and Ted Geisel s role as president policymaker and editor of the line for thirty years has been told briefly in various biographies of Dr Seuss but I Can Read It All by Myself The Beginner Books Story presents it in full detail for the first time Drawn from archival research and dozens of brand new interviews I Can Read It All by Myself explores the origins philosophies and operations of Beginner Books from The Cat in the Hat in 1957 to 2019 s A Skunk in My Bunk and reveals the often fascinating lives of the writers and illustrators who created them

Intensifying Classroom Routines in Reading and Writing Programs

Michael P. Ford,2017-06-15 Three common routines are seen in almost every primary language arts programs morning messages shared readings and word walls These routines should be integrated to support the total language arts program but are teachers of grades K 2 getting the most bang for their buck out of these activities Morning messages can become very routinized and repeat the same experiences over and over again Shared readings are sometimes conducted with little variation in spite of changing demands from the texts being used and changing needs in the learners with whom they are being used Word walls might be put up with some attention early in the year and remain virtually unchanged as the year moves forward Intensifying Classroom Routines in Reading and Writing Programs focuses on how teachers can get more instructional mileage out of these three common classroom routines Author Michael P Ford lays out step by step day by day plans to put those three key routines on a cycle that changes as students move through developmental phases This resource helps teachers plan for emergent and early readers and writers It also looks at how teachers can assist students as they move through critical areas including concepts of print alphabetic knowledge phonological awareness sound symbol relationships high frequency words structural analysis context clues comprehension strategies and composition strategies With these intensified routines in place students will clearly see connections between reading and writing
