Improvising the Score Gretchen L. Carlson, 2022-06-27 2023 Jazz Journalists Association JJA Jazz Awards for Books of the Year Honorable Mention Recipient On December 4 1957 Miles Davis revolutionized film soundtrack production improvising the score for Louis Malle's Ascenseur pour l'échafaud A cinematic harbinger of the French New Wave Ascenseur challenged mainstream filmmaking conventions emphasizing experimentation and creative collaboration It was in this environment during the late 1950s to 1960s a brief golden age for jazz in film that many independent filmmakers valued improvisational techniques featuring soundtracks from such seminal figures as John Lewis Thelonious Monk and Duke Ellington But what of jazz in film today Improvising the Score Rethinking Modern Film Music through Jazz provides an original vivid investigation of innovative collaborations between renowned contemporary jazz artists and prominent independent filmmakers The book explores how these integrative jazz film productions challenge us to rethink the possibilities of cinematic music production In depth case studies include collaborations between Terence Blanchard and Spike Lee Malcolm X When the Levees Broke Dick Hyman and Woody Allen Hannah and Her Sisters Antonio Sánchez and Alejandro González Iñárritu Birdman and Mark Isham and Alan Rudolph Afterglow The first book of its kind this study examines jazz artists work in film from a sociological perspective offering rich behind the scenes analyses of their unique collaborative relationships with filmmakers It investigates how jazz artists negotiate their own creative labor examining the tensions between improvisation and the conventionally highly regulated structures hierarchies and expectations of filmmaking Grounded in personal interviews and detailed film production analysis Improvising the Score illustrates the dynamic possibilities of integrative artistic collaborations between jazz film and other contemporary media exemplifying its ripeness for shaping and invigorating twenty first century arts media and culture Mass Communication Ralph E.

Hanson, 2024-12-09 The best selling Mass Communication Living in a Media World offers an accessible introduction to mass communication equipping students with the critical thinking skills to become savvy media consumers Using a storytelling approach the text weaves in examples drawn from everyday life making it easier for students to retain the material and connect it to their own media experiences Readers are encouraged to consider the media industry from the inside out and in doing so discover the many dimensions of mass communication that operate in our society This newly revised Ninth Edition highlights the aftermath of how the media industry and media consumers have evolved since the global pandemic closely examining the changing face of media today Chokepoint Capitalism Rebecca Giblin, Cory Doctorow, 2022-09-27 A call to action for the creative class and labor movement to rally against the power of Big Tech and Big Media Corporate concentration has breached the stratosphere as have corporate profits An ever expanding constellation of industries are now monopolies where sellers have excessive power over buyers or monopsonies where buyers hold the whip hand over sellers or both In Chokepoint Capitalism scholar Rebecca Giblin and writer and activist Cory Doctorow argue we're in a new era of chokepoint capitalism with exploitative businesses creating insurmountable barriers to competition that enable them to capture value that should rightfully go to others All workers are weakened by this but the problem is especially well illustrated by the plight of creative workers From Amazon s use of digital rights management and bundling to radically change the economics of book publishing to Google and Facebook s siphoning away of ad revenues from news media and the Big Three record labels use of inordinately long contracts to up their own margins at the cost of artists chokepoints are everywhere By analyzing book publishing and news live music and music streaming screenwriting radio and more Giblin and Doctorow deftly show how powerful corporations construct anti competitive flywheels designed to lock in users and suppliers make their markets hostile to new entrants and then force workers and suppliers to accept unfairly low prices In the book s second half Giblin and Doctorow then explain how to batter through those chokepoints with tools ranging from transparency rights to collective action and ownership radical interoperability contract terminations job guarantees and minimum wages for creative work Chokepoint Capitalism is a call to workers of all sectors to unite to help smash these chokepoints and take back the power and profit that s being heisted away before it s too late

Cohen, 2021-12-30. In this second edition of Investing in Movies, industry veteran Joseph N. Cohen provides investors and producers with an analytical framework to assess the opportunities and pitfalls of film investments. The book traces macroeconomic trends and the globalization of the business, including the rise of streamers as well as the impact these have on potential returns. It offers a broad range of guidelines on how to source interesting projects and advice on what kinds of projects to avoid as well as numerous ways to maximize risk-adjusted returns. While focusing primarily on investments in independent films, Cohen also provides valuable insights into the studio and independent slate deals that have been marketed to the institutional investment community. As well, this new edition has been updated to fully optimize the current film industry climate, including brand new chapters on the Chinese film market, new media streaming services and the effects of COVID-19 on the global film market. Written in a detailed and approachable manner, this book is essential for students and aspiring professionals looking to gain an insider perspective against the minefield of film investing. Publishing in the Digital Age Michael N. Ross, 2021-10-17.
