The Good Food Revolution Will Allen, 2012-05-10 A pioneering urban farmer and MacArthur Genius Award winner points the way to building a new food system that can feed and heal broken communities The son of a sharecropper Will Allen had no intention of ever becoming a farmer himself But after years in professional basketball and as an executive for Kentucky Fried Chicken and Procter Gamble Allen cashed in his retirement fund for a two acre plot a half mile away from Milwaukee's largest public housing project The area was a food desert with only convenience stores and fast food restaurants to serve the needs of local residents In the face of financial challenges and daunting odds Allen built the country's preeminent urban farm a food and educational center that now produces enough vegetables and fish year round to feed thousands of people Employing young people from the neighboring housing project and community Growing Power has sought to prove that local food systems can help troubled youths dismantle racism create jobs bring urban and rural communities closer together and improve public health Today Allen's organization helps develop community food systems across the country An eco classic in the making The Good Food Revolution is the story of Will's personal journey the lives he has touched and a grassroots movement that is changing the way our nation eats Global Literary Studies Diana

Roig-Sanz, Neus Rotger, 2022-12-05 While the very existence of global literary studies as an institutionalised field is not yet fully established the global turn in various disciplines in the humanities and the social sciences has been gaining traction in recent years This book aims to contribute to the field of global literary studies with a more inclusive and decentralising approach Specifically it responds to a double demand the need for expanding openness to other ways of seeing the global literary space by including multiple literary and cultural traditions and other interdisciplinary perspectives in the discussion and the need for conceptual models and different case studies that will help develop a global approach in four key avenues of research global translation flows and translation policies the post 1989 novel as a global form global literary environments and a global perspective on film and cinema history Gathering contributions from international scholars with expertise in
