anything Jack is familiar with he has always done things on his own It wasn't until only recently that we knew something like this even existed Crowdfunding is the process of funding your projects through small contributions made by many individuals in order to attain a certain monetary goal typically via the internet The model that has been around the longest is rewards based crowdfunding where people can donate and receive goods in recognition of their support Ashley and Dylan Whyte have taken Scrapbook to RocketHub a platform specializing in arts and entertainment to seek help in bringing Jack's story to life They've launched their campaign and are working to raise 11 500 to cover the costs of printing a limited edition hardcover In the meantime Scrapbook remains free for everyone to read online and enjoy For more information about Scrapbook and how you can help please visit their Rockethub campaign at scrapbook.whytesonline.com Strategy Beyond the Hockey Stick

Chris Bradley, Martin Hirt, Sven Smit, 2018-02-06 Beat the odds with a bold strategy from McKinsey Company Every once in a while a genuinely fresh approach to business strategy appears legendary business professor Richard Rumelt UCLA McKinsey Company's newest most definitive and most irreverent book on strategy which thousands of executives are already using is a must read for all C suite executives looking to create winning corporate strategies Strategy Beyond the Hockey Stick is spearheading an empirical revolution in the field of strategy Based on an extensive analysis of the key factors that drove the long term performance of thousands of global companies the book offers a ground breaking formula that enables you to objectively assess your strategy's real odds of future success This book is fundamental The principles laid out here with compelling data are a great way around the social pitfalls in strategy development Frans Van Houten CEO Royal Philips N V The authors have discovered that over a 10 year period just 1 in 12 companies manage to jump from the middle tier of corporate performance where 60% of companies reside making very little economic profit to the top quintile where 90% of global economic profit is made This movement does not happen by magic it depends on your company's current position the trends it faces and the big moves you make to give it the strongest chance of vaulting over the competition This is not another strategy framework Rather Strategy Beyond the Hockey Stick shows through empirical analysis and the experiences of dozens of companies that have successfully made multiple big moves that to dramatically improve performance you have to overcome incrementalism and corporate inertia A different kind of book I couldn't put it down Inspiring new insights on the facts of what it takes to move a company's performance combined with practical advice on how to deal with real life dynamics in management teams Jane Fraser CEO Citigroup Latin America The Hockey News ... The Eternal Present of Sport Daniel A. Grano, 2017-06 In his persuasive study The Eternal Present of Sport Daniel Grano rethinks the sport religion relationship by positioning sport as a source of theological trouble Focusing on bodies time movement and memory he demonstrates how negative theology can be practically and theoretically useful as a critique of elite televised sport Grano asserts that it is precisely through sport's highest religious ideals that controversies are taking shape and constituting points of political and social rupture He examines issues of transcendence legacy e.g. greatest ever or all time and witnessing through instant replay which undermine institutional authority Grano also reflects on elite athletes representing especially powerful embodiments of religious and social conflict including around issues related to gender sexuality ability doping traumatic brain injury and institutional greed Elite sport is in a period of profound crisis It is through the ideals Grano analyzes that we can imagine a radically alternative future for elite sport
