Access to Microfinance and Financial Training for Innovative Urban Sustainability Musau Mutisya, 2014-10-06 The Kenyan population is highly concentrated in urban centres leading to increased social economic and environmental strains with a significant percentage of urban dwellers living in sprawling slums Urban development is increasingly a major focus especially in the fight against urban sustainability problems There is little practical orientation in the academic literature for the growing gap between the rich and poor Current literature is enormously concerned with resource use and environmental pressures paying scant attention to the nexus between urban sustainability and empowerment of the urban poor This book initiates debates on the segment of urban population often referred to as the bottom of the pyramid BOP by analysing the microfinance innovation following evaluation of the impacts of access to microfinance and financial training and the implications to urban sustainability in Kenya The main conclusion reached is that microfinance has an instrumental role to play in promoting sustainable urban development as it supports social welfare improvement and increases the livelihood of participants business development and urban sustainability to a certain extent thereby empowering the urban poor in contributing to poverty alleviation Expanding Access to Care Through Health Professions Education & Training United States. Health Resources and Services Administration. Bureau of Health Professions, 1996

Access to Justice in Rural Communities
Daniel Newman, Faith Gordon, 2023-05-04 This book offers insight on access to justice from rural areas in internationally comparable contexts to highlight the diversity of experiences within and across rural areas globally It looks at the fundamental questions for people's lives raised by the issue of access to justice as well as the rule of law It highlights a range of social geographic and cultural issues which impact the way rural communities experience the justice system throughout the world with chapters on Australia Canada England Ireland Kenya Northern Ireland South Africa Syria Turkey the USA and Wales Each chapter explores three questions 1 How do people experience the institutions of justice in rural areas and how does this rural experience differ to an urban experience 2 What impact have changes in policy had on the justice system in rural areas and have rural and urban areas been affected in different ways 3 What impact does the law have on people's lives in rural areas and what would rural communities like to be better understood about their experience of the justice system By bringing in the voices and experiences of those who are often ignored or side lined by justice systems this book will set out an agenda for ensuring social justice in legal systems with a focus on protecting marginalised groups
