The Glocalization of Early Childhood Curriculum Philip Hui Li, Jennifer J. Chen, 2023-02-03 With empirical evidence and theoretical critique this book unveils the myths and debates e.g. child centeredness versus teacher directedness about early childhood curricula revealing their unique social cultural and historical roots Analyzing globally advocated early childhood curricula and ideologies such as the developmentally appropriate practice the child centered approach constructivism and globalized childhood this book argues that the direct adoption of these contextually bound approaches in local environments may be inappropriate if social and cultural compatibility is lacking The authors then examine how early childhood curricula may be implemented in a hybrid form Featuring case studies from American and Chinese contexts this book offers insights and recommendations for the future development and redeployment of early childhood curriculum studies and practices in a post truth era This volume serves as a valuable resource for scholars and students of early childhood education and comparative education as well as for key education stakeholders

Death by Hot Apple Cider Alex Erickson, 2021-10-26 Krissy Hancock's bookstore caf in Pine Hills Ohio is teaming up with the local library for a seasonal celebration but someone is spiking the refreshments with fatal results With autumn in full swing and Thanksgiving on the way Krissy's supplying cider and her staff is manning the apple bobbing booth at a town event But then a patron dunks his head in and doesn't come back up It soon becomes clear that Krissy's brew wasn't to blame But with her policeman boyfriend looking to make detective she can't help being drawn into the investigation The victim was notorious for harassing not only her own bookstore but the library and the school for promoting supposedly scandalous literature before someone censored him permanently Now Krissy will have to check out a stack of suspects to find a killer who's rotten to the core
