Tasks

Scheduling Tasks: Tasks in Project can be manually or auto scheduled.

- Manually Scheduled Tasks (the default): Can be placed anywhere in the activity and Project won't move them. You can add just the details you know and come back later to fill in additional details.
- Auto Scheduled Tasks: Are scheduled by Project. You enter information such as the task duration, work, resources, and constraints, and Project calculates when the task should start.

Set the Task Scheduling Mode: Click the New Task button in the status bar and select a scheduling method.

Insert a Task: In Gantt Chart view, click where you want to add the new task and click the Task button on the Task tab. Type a name for the task and press Enter.

Delete a Task: Click the Task ID for the task you want to delete and press the Delete key on the keyboard.

Create a Milestone Task: Click in a blank Task Name cell, type a name for the milestone and press Enter. Click the milestone's Duration cell, type 0 D, and press Enter. Milestones are just regular tasks, but with no duration. They are represented with the symbol.

Resources

There are 3 types of resources in Project:

- Work Resource Resources that you assign by time. For a person who works full time, their cost is based on time worked.
- Material Resource Physical items used in completing the project. For a computer, their cost is not based on time.
- Cost Resource Resources that aren't based on time or quantity, such as travel expenses or fees.

View the Resource Sheet: Click the View tab on the ribbon and click the Resource Sheet button.

Add Work Resources: Click in the first blank Resource Name cell, type a resource name, and press Enter. Ensure Work is selected in the Type column and add in any known resource information.

Add Material Resources: Click in the first available cell in the Resource Name list, type a resource name, and press Enter. Click the Type list's list arrow and select Material. Add any known resource information.

Add Cost Resources: Click in the first
