The Camp Livinus Jatto,2020-08-24 With both parents from Tabo Gido Ora in Ukama State Badamasi born in Takula Kakuri in Badaka State was commissioned as an officer of the Nigerian Army using his state of birth as his state of origin He however found that his claim of Badaka State was an encumbrance to his career growth Everywhere he turned he found that his identity was constantly questioned He couldn't identify as an indigene of Ukama State because he neither knew the State nor could he speak the Ora dialect Yet although he had lived all his life in Badaka and spoke Hausa fluently he was not fully accepted or integrated into their society He figured he will lose out when the military hierarchical ladder gets narrower since at those higher levels quota system becomes crucial to getting higher ranks He found he was internally displaced Through his various experiences Badamasi concluded that his displacement was not necessarily a lack of acceptance by the society Instead it was a manifestation of the convoluted economic political and social dynamics of Nigeria where because of past colonial rule and many political failures corruption defines every aspect of the citizen's life Most citizens have lost hope in the country and now have a collective psyche of internally displaced persons living in a camp They hope that someday they will find their way home because Nigeria is not their home Business & Maritime West Africa ,2006 Most Active
