Changing Borders in Europe Jacint Jordana, Michael Keating, Axel Marx, Jan Wouters, 2018-12-21 Changing Borders in Europe focuses on the territorial dimension of the European Union. It examines the transformation of state sovereignty within the EU, the emergence of varied self-determination claims and the existence of a tailor-made architecture of functional borders established by multiple agreements. This book helps to understand how self-determination pressures within the EU are creating growing concerns about member states' identity, redefining multi-level government in the European space. It addresses several questions regarding two transformative processes: blurring of EU borders and state sovereignty shifts and their interrelations from different disciplinary perspectives such as political science, law, political economy and sociology. In addition, it explores how the variable geographies of European borders may affect the issue of national self-determination in Europe, opening spaces for potential accommodations that could be compatible with existing states and legal frameworks. This book will be of key interest for scholars, students and practitioners of EU politics, public administration, political theory, federalism and more broadly of European studies, international law, ethnic studies, political economy and the wider social sciences.

Peacebuilding, Constitutionalism and the Global South Kajit Bagu (John Paul), 2019-07-05 This book presents the case that liberal constitutionalism in the global South is a legacy of colonialism and is inappropriate as a means of securing effective peace in regions that have been subject to recurrent conflict. The work demonstrates the failure of liberal constitutionalism in guaranteeing peace in the postcolonial global South. It develops an alternative more compelling constitutionalism for peacebuilding in conflicted regions. This is based on constitutionalism that recognises plurality as a major feature in the global South. Drawing on events in Nigeria, it develops a constitutional model based on Cognitive Justice which could deliver peace by addressing historic conceptual, legal, institutional and structural issues that have created social inequality and injustice. The study also incorporates insights from the development of plurinational constitutions in South America. The book will be an invaluable resource for researchers, academics and policy makers with an interest in constitutional legal theory, peacebuilding and postcolonial studies.

The Oxford Handbook of Citizenship Ayelet Shachar, Rainer Bauböck, Irene Bloemraad, Maarten Vink, 2017-08-03 Contrary to predictions that it would become increasingly redundant in a globalizing world, citizenship is back with a vengeance. The Oxford Handbook of Citizenship brings together leading experts in law, philosophy, political science, economics, sociology and geography to provide a multidisciplinary comparative discussion of different dimensions of citizenship as legal status and political membership, as rights and obligations, as identity and belonging, as civic virtues and practices of engagement and as a discourse of political and social equality or responsibility for a common good. The contributors engage with some of the oldest normative and substantive quandaries in the literature, dilemmas that have renewed salience in today's political climate. As well as setting an agenda for future theoretical and empirical explorations, this Handbook explores the state of citizenship today in an accessible and engaging manner that will appeal to a wide academic and non academic audience Chapters highlight variations in citizenship regimes practiced in different countries from immigrant states to non western contexts from settler societies to newly independent states attentive to both migrants and those who never cross an international border Topics include the selling of citizenship multilevel citizenship in between statuses citizenship laws post colonial citizenship the impact of technological change on citizenship and other cutting edge issues This Handbook is the major reference work for those engaged with citizenship from a legal political and cultural perspective Written by the most knowledgeable senior and emerging scholars in their fields this comprehensive volume offers state of the art analyses of the main challenges and prospects of citizenship in today s world of increased migration and globalization Special emphasis is put on the question of whether inclusive and egalitarian citizenship can provide political legitimacy in a turbulent world of exploding social inequality and resurgent populism

Nationalism and Globalisation Stephen Tierney, 2015-10-08 This book addresses a seemingly paradoxical situation On the one hand nationalism from Scotland to the Ukraine remains a resilient political dynamic fostering secessionist movements below the level of the state On the other the competence and capacity of states and indeed the coherence of nationalism as an ideology are increasingly challenged by patterns of globalisation in commerce cultural communication and constitutional authority beyond the state It is the aim of this book to shed light on the relationship between these two processes addressing why the political currency of nationalism remains strong even when the salience of its objective independent and autonomous statehood becomes ever more attenuated The book takes an interdisciplinary approach both within law and beyond with contributions from international law constitutional law constitutional theory history political science and sociology The challenge for our time is considerable Global networks grow ever more sophisticated while territorial borders such as those in Eastern and Central Europe become seemingly more unstable It is hoped that this book by bringing together areas of scholarship which have not communicated with one another as much as they might will help develop an ongoing dialogue across disciplines with which better to understand these challenging and potentially destabilising developments      Choice ,1997      Yearbook of International Organizations 2014-2015 (Volume 4)
