Cross-Training in the Voice Studio Norman

Spivey, Mary Saunder Barton, 2018-05-18 Cross Training in the Voice Studio A Balancing Act is an innovative resource for teachers and students of singing in today's evolving professional landscape. Saunders Barton and Spivey offer an inside view of their applied studios and the results of the cross training process. As vocal performance demands continue to change, singers must adapt in order to stay competitive in the job market. The authors address this challenge and provide a practical technical approach to developing the most flexible and resilient singing voices: the essence of their philosophy of bel canto can be embraced, embracing classical and vernacular styles.

Key Features: In depth chapter on resonance registration for voice building; Cross training in the academic vs the private studio; Cross training with repertoire; Coverage of multi-disciplinary training: how acting, speech, movement and dance support studio effort; Student recordings enhance concepts within the text.

Cross Training in the Voice Studio A Balancing Act is a must read for anyone in the singing profession seeking insight on cross training.
