One Day At A Time A Novel:

Write Your Novel One Day at a Time J. W. Judge, 2022-11-01 You've always had the ideas for your novel. Now you can do the work of writing it. Write Your Novel One Day at a Time will help develop the processes to do the creative work of writing your novel. I will show you the power of consistency by giving you a look at my daily word counts and journal entries through the six-month endeavor of writing my third novel while working my day job as a commercial litigator and raising a young family. My writing has been twenty-five years in the making and now includes four non-fiction books and three novels. All these books have been written in small chunks, a few hundred words at a time, because small increments are the only ones I have. Through this book, I will show you how showing up daily to do your creative work will help you deliver the book you want to write. But I'm not the only one who has had to juggle writing, family, and a career. In Write Your Novel One Day at a Time, I interview five successful writers who began writing their novels during their professional careers. Through these interviews and my own experiences, I will help you develop a blueprint for how you can get your creative work done. I am not a guru who has all the answers; I am a writer who is figuring things out as I go. So as I learn on the fly, I want to help flatten the learning curve and provide some encouragement for those of you who also aspire to write novels and get your words and your work into the world.

One Day at a Time Daniel J. Fick, 2019-04-04 One Day at a Time provides an explicit view into my journey from obsession with lust, addiction to pornography, use and adultery to real emotional and spiritual healing. Lust and the compulsive attitudes and actions it breeds is one of the most profound and taboo issues facing humanity today. Most within the Church are too afraid to share their stories of struggle and redemption. Unfortunately, fear is born from shame, which keeps those struggling isolated, allowing for our obsessions and addictions to fester and destroy lives and families. Through anecdotal advice, scientific research, and honest, transparent, and humble autobiography, this book aims to bring awareness to the havoc lust, pornography, use, and adultery are wreaking on society today. Success & Happiness One Day at a Time; an instructional manual for your life,

One Day at a Time Lea Karen Kivi, 2009-12 The gift to be born again each day could sum up the impact of this book. It is an inspired personal journey through the Bible. As such, it provides energy and hope during the difficult days of that journey, as well as praise and thanksgiving for the gifted days of joy and happiness. A precious companion for those searching for personal nourishment from the Scriptures. Joseph Grassi, Professor Emeritus, Santa Clara University. This book will be a rich resource for many people. The reflections and questions help to focus on selected key points in a way that leads to personal application and prayer. Dr. Eileen Schuller, Professor of Religious Studies, McMaster University. In a day when addiction issues are permeating society, looking carefully at Scripture and some of the more difficult issues of life is a great investment of time. Dr. Steve Stiles, Professor of Addiction Studies, Bethany University. Lea Karen Kivi, M.A., is a technical writer who has worked in Silicon Valley, California, and in Toronto, Canada. Outside of work, her writings touch on both the light side and dark side of community life, with a view to bringing unity, healing, and forgiveness where needed Topics of her articles range from reporting on community celebrations to the analysis of particularly painful and sensitive issues such as domestic violence sexual harassment and clerical abuse She has studied philosophy and French literature at the University of Toronto biblical languages and exegesis at Regis College and pastoral ministry at Santa Clara University In her faith life she has studied Hebrew at a synagogue spoken at an interfaith conference hosted by a Muslim community and been a member of several Christian denominations Currently her spiritual home is St Michael s Cathedral in Toronto
