One Thousand Roads Mecca Pilgrimage Ebook:

One Thousand Roads to Mecca Michael Wolfe, 2015-09-29 Wolfe does an exemplary job of detailing the ceremonies performed at Mecca and the reasons behind them. Highly recommended. Library Journal starred review. This updated and expanded edition of One Thousand Roads to Mecca collects significant works by observant travel writers from the East and West over the last ten centuries including two new contemporary narratives creating a comprehensive multifaceted literary portrait of the enduring tradition. Since its inception in the seventh century the pilgrimage to Mecca has been the central theme in a large body of Islamic travel literature. Beginning with the European Renaissance it has also been the subject for a handful of adventurous writers from the West who through conversion or connivance managed to slip inside the walls of a city forbidden to non-Muslims. These very different literary traditions form distinct impressions of a spirited conversation in which Mecca is the common destination and Islam the common subject of inquiry. Along with an introduction by Reza Aslan, featured writers include Ibn Battuta, J. L. Burckhardt, Sir Richard Burton, the Begum of Bhopal, John F. Keane, Winifred Stegar, Muhammad Asad, Lady Evelyn Cobbold, Jalal al-Ahmad, and Malcolm X. One Thousand Roads to Mecca is a historically, geographically, and ethnically diverse collection of travel writing that adds substantially to the literature of Islam and the West. Serves as an excellent introduction to a religion, people, culture, and philosophy. Santa Cruz Sentinel. The Hajj Eric Tagliacozzo, Shawkat M. Toorawa, 2015-11-18 Every year hundreds of thousands of pilgrims from all over the world converge on Mecca and its precincts to perform the rituals associated with the Hajj and have been doing so since the seventh century. In this volume scholars from a range of fields including history, religion, anthropology, and literature together tell the story of the Hajj and explain its significance as one of the key events in the Muslim religious calendar. By outlining the parameters of the Hajj from its beginnings to the present day, the contributors have produced a global study that takes in the vast geographies of belief in the world of Islam. This volume pays attention to the diverse aspects of the Hajj as lived every year by hundreds of millions of Muslims, touching on its rituals, its regional forms, the role of gender, its representation in art, and its organization on a global scale. Pilgrimage in Practice Ian S. McIntosh, E. Moore Quinn, Vivienne Keely, 2018-04-25 Pilgrimage in Practice: Narration, Reclamation, and Healing provides an interdisciplinary approach to the topic. It reveals many aspects of the practice of pilgrimage from its nationalistic facets to its effect on economic development, from the impact of the internet to questions of globalization, from pilgrimage as protest to pilgrimage as creative expression in such media as film, art, and literature. Perhaps best understood as a form of heritage tourism or tourism with a conscience, pilgrimage as with touristic travel contains a measure of transformation that is often deep and enduring, making it a fascinating area of study. Reviewing social justice in the context of pilgrimage and featuring a diverse collection of interdisciplinary voices from across the globe, this book is a rich collection of papers for researchers of pilgrimage and religious and heritage tourism. MY ACCOUNT OF THE HAJJ Nicholas Hughes, 2014-05 Rare are works that combine personal revelations with explanations of

Islam in a manner to which Westerners can easily relate The beauty of Nicholas Account of the Hajj italicise is that an Australian farm boy with an education imbued in Christian principles and a lifetime of exposure to religions and cultures in the Arab world and South and South East Asia can relate to and convey in a straightforward manner Islamic beliefs and practices that many may consider foreign Nicholas has done a great service to those interested in religions and spirituality in his descriptions of the rites of the Hajj and explanations of their origins and meaning As a diary the work animates the daily life of the pilgrim in an engaging style reminiscent of writings from an earlier period of exploration Nick expresses a personal revelation the Hajj inspires a deep sense of serenity humility and affinity with the Almighty The Hajj is both a voyage to Mecca as well as a recommitment to a lifelong spiritual journey He writes If my Account of the Hajj can contribute to inter cultural and religious understanding I am happy to have shared it with others One Thousand Roads to Mecca Michael

Wolfe,1997 Beginning with the European Renaissance it has also been the subject for a handful of adventurous writers from the Christian West who through conversion or connivance managed to slip inside the walls of a city forbidden to non Muslims

When thinking of intrepid travelers from past centuries we don't usually put Muslim women at the top of the list. And yet the stunning firsthand accounts in this collection completely upend preconceived notions of who was exploring the world. Editors Siobhan Lambert Hurley, Daniel Majchrowicz, and Sunil Sharma recover, translate, annotate, and provide historical and cultural context for the 17th to 20th century writings of Muslim women travelers in ten different languages. Queens and captives, pilgrims and provocateurs, these women are diverse. Their connection to Islam is wide ranging as well, from the devout to those who distanced themselves from religion. What unites these adventurers is a concern for other women they encounter, their willingness to record their experiences, and the constant thoughts they cast homeward even as they traveled a world that was not always prepared to welcome them. Perfect for readers interested in gender, Islam, travel writing, and global history, Three Centuries of Travel Writing by Muslim Women provides invaluable insight into how these daring women experienced the world in their own voices.
