Online Book Anxious Appetites Consumer Contemporary Politics:

Anxious Appetites Peter Jackson, 2015-09-24 Despite government claims that food is safer and more readily available today than ever before recent survey evidence demonstrates high levels of food related anxiety among Western consumers While chronic hunger and malnutrition are relatively rare in the West food scares relating to individual products concerns about global food security and other expressions of consumer anxiety about food remain widespread Anxious Appetites explores the causes of these present day anxieties Looking at fears over provenance and regulation in a world of lengthening supply chains and greater concentration of corporate power Peter Jackson investigates how anxieties about food circulate and how they act as a channel for broader social issues Drawing on case studies such as the 2013 horsemeat scandal and fears about the contamination of infant formula in China in 2008 he examines how and why these concerns emerge Comparing survey results with ethnographic observation of consumer practice he explores the gap between official advice about food safety and people's everyday experience of food including a critique of ideological notions of consumer choice A captivating timely book which presents a new theory of social anxiety Anxious Appetites Peter Jackson, 2015

Routledge Handbook on Consumption Margit Keller, Bente Halkier, Terhi-Anna Wilska, Monica Truninger, 2017-02-10 Consumption research is burgeoning across a wide range of disciplines The Routledge Handbook on Consumption gathers experts from around the world to provide a nuanced overview of the latest scholarship in this expanding field At once ambitious and timely the volume provides an ideal map for those looking to position their work find new analytic insights and identify research gaps With an intuitive thematic structure and resolutely international outlook it engages with theory and methodology markets and businesses policies politics and the state and culture and everyday life It will be essential reading for students and scholars across the social and economic sciences Feeding Anxieties Zofia Boni, 2023-03-10 Focusing on the underlying politics behind children's food this book highlights the variety of social relationships expectations and emotions ingrained in feeding children in Poland With rich ethnographic accounts including research with children the book demonstrates how families schools the food industry and state agencies shape and experience feeding anxieties and how such anxiety is at the heart of a new form of sociality The book complicates our understanding of health and modern subjectivity and unpacks what and how we feed children today Play Among Books Miro Roman, Alice _ch3n81, 2021-12-06 How does coding change the way we think about architecture This question opens up an important research perspective In this book Miro Roman and his AI Alice_ch3n81 develop a playful scenario in which they propose coding as the new literacy of information They convey knowledge in the form of a project model that links the fields of architecture and information through two interwoven narrative strands in an infinite flow of real books Focusing on the intersection of information technology and architectural formulation the authors create an evolving intellectual reflection on digital architecture and computer science Globalizing Organic Rafi Groszlik, 2021-02-01 Globalizing Organic focuses on the globalization of a culture of eating for change and the ways in which local meanings attached to the production of foods embed ecological and social values Rafi Groszlik examines how organic agriculture was integrated in Israel a state in which agriculture was a key mechanism in promoting Jewish nationalism and in time has become highly mechanized and technologically sophisticated He explores how organic food which signifies environmental protection and social equity has been realized in a country where environmental issues are perceived as less pressing compared to inner political conflicts the Israeli Arab conflict and recurrent wars Based on more than a decade of ethnographic fieldwork interviews and analysis of historical documents and media Groszlik traces how alternative food movements are affected by global and local trends He covers a wide range of topics including the ethos of halutzim pioneers Zionist ideological farmers and workers the utopian visions of the Israeli kibbutz indigeneity that is claimed both by Palestinians and Jewish settlers in the Gaza Strip and in the West Bank biblical meanings that have been ascribed to environmental and countercultural ideas the Americanization of Israeli society and its neoliberalized economy

Expanding Psychoanalysis Brett Kahr, 2024-11-01 Expanding Psychoanalysis explores the work of the acclaimed psychoanalyst writer and activist Susie Orbach The book studies Orbach's multifaceted career in five sections examining her multitudinous contributions to the mental health profession from the creation of feminist psychotherapy to the enhancement of media psychology to the growth of political and social consultation The book contains clinical historical and personal chapters examining Orbach from a range of perspectives Each chapter investigates a key aspect of Orbach's work and its impact on the professional the social and the personal level The book concludes with an epilogue by Orbach herself Expanding Psychoanalysis will be essential for all readers interested in the work of Susie Orbach
