Migrants In Translation Caring And The Logics Of Difference In Contemporary Italy:

Migrants in Translation Cristiana Giordano, 2014-05-16 Migrants in Translation is an ethnographic reflection on foreign migration mental health and cultural translation in Italy Its larger context is Europe and the rapid shifts in cultural and political identities that are negotiated between cultural affinity and a multicultural multiracial Europe The issue of migration and cultural difference figures as central in the process of forming diverse yet unified European identities In this context legal and illegal foreigners mostly from Eastern Europe and Northern and Sub Saharan Africa are often portrayed as a threat to national and supranational identities security cultural foundations and religious values This book addresses the legal therapeutic and moral techniques of recognition and cultural translation that emerge in response to these social uncertainties In particular Migrants in Translation focuses on Italian ethno psychiatry as an emerging technique that provides culturally appropriate therapeutic services exclusively to migrants political refugees and victims of torture and trafficking Cristiana Giordano argues that ethno psychiatry's focus on cultural identifications as therapeutic inasmuch as it complies with current political desires for diversity and multiculturalism also provides a radical critique of psychiatric legal and moral categories of inclusion and allows for a rethinking of the politics of recognition

Grenze und Demokratie Nele Kortendiek, Marina Martinez Mateo, 2017-04-06 Wie lässt sich das normative Verhältnis von Grenze und Demokratie beschreiben Auf der einen Seite sind Demokratien auf Grenzziehungen angewiesen und verweisen auf ein souveränes Volk das erst durch Abgrenzungen bestimmbar wird Auf der anderen Seite implizieren demokratische Normen wie Freiheit und Gleichheit einen Universalismus der sich jeder Grenzziehung verwehrt Dieser Ambivalenz geht der Band nach Er leistet nicht nur einen Beitrag zu gegenwärtigen Debatten über Demokratie innerhalb und jenseits des Staates sondern berührt auch aktuelle Fragen zu Migrations und Flüchtlingspolitik

Intercultural Crisis Communication Christophe Declercq, Federico M. Federici, 2019-11-14 Intercultural Crisis Communication poses pertinent questions and provides powerful responses to crises that have characterised the modern world since 2010 Language mediation in situations of disaster emergency and conflict is an under developed area of scholarship in Translation Studies This book responds to a clear need for research drawn from practical experiences in the field and explores the crucial role of translation interpretation and mediation in contexts of crises Particular consideration is given to situations where rare or minority languages represent a substantial obstacle to humanitarian operations Contemporary case studies from the USA Africa Europe and Armenia provide major examples of crisis communication that call for more efficient language mediation Such examples include Syrian displacement the refugee crisis in Croatia and Italy international terrorism and national public administration interpreting in conflict and for Medcins sans Frontières as well as the integration of refugee doctors for employment in the UK With contributions from experts in the field this volume is of international relevance and provides a multifaceted overview of intercultural communication issues and remedies during crises

Migration Doris

Bachmann-Medick, Jens Kugele, 2018-07-23 Recent debates on migration have demonstrated the important role of concepts in academic and political discourse The contributions to this collection revisit established analytical categories in the study of migration such as border regimes orders of belonging coloniality translation trans national digital culture and memory Exploring notions images and realities of migration in their cultural framings this volume sheds light on the powerful work of these concepts Including perspectives on migration from history visual studies pedagogy literary and cultural studies cultural anthropology and sociology it explores the complex scholarly and popular notions of migration with particular focus on their often unspoken assumptions and political implications Revisiting established analytical tools in the study of migration the interdisciplinary contributions explore new approaches and point to the importance of conceptual nuance extending beyond academic discourse
