Chinese Animation, Creative Industries, and Digital Culture Weihua Wu, 2017-08-03 This book explores the development of the Chinese animation film industry from the beginning of China's reform process up to the present. It discusses above all the relationship between the communist state's policies to stimulate creative industries, concepts of creativity and aesthetics and the creation and maintenance through changing circumstances of a national style by Chinese animators. The book also examines the relationship between Chinese animation, changing technologies including the rise first of television and then of digital media and youth culture, demonstrating the importance of Chinese animation in Chinese youth culture in the digital age.

Contemporary Culture and Media in Asia Daniel Black, Olivia Khoo, Koichi Iwabuchi, 2016-09-23 The study of Asian culture, media and communications is an area that has developed rapidly over the past two decades. This rapid development has led to the deployment of diverse scholarly approaches while simultaneously raising important questions regarding the extent to which the use of key terms such as nation, citizenship and modernity must be modified to reflect the specificity of an Asian context. Furthermore, the irrepressible flows of popular cultural forms and the enthusiastic adoption of new communications technologies across the region demand approaches that can accommodate the dynamism and diversity of Asian culture and media. Contemporary Culture and Media in Asia brings together leading scholars from Asia, North America and Australia to address questions related to these challenges, producing new insights and frameworks that can be productively utilized by students and scholars working in the field.

The Routledge Handbook of Fan Video and Digital Authorship Louisa Ellen Stein, Samantha Close, 2025-10-31 This cutting edge collection explores the histories, aesthetics and cultural work of fan video across a wide variety of manifestations and genres. Editors Louisa Ellen Stein and Samantha Close have assembled an edited collection that showcases the aesthetic diversity and transcultural dynamics at play in fan video as a widespread form. The collection explores the relationships between fan video as a set of DIY subcultural authorship forms and the broader evolving popular cultures of digital media, looking at how fan video structures and aesthetics influence other popular and commercial forms of digital video. In order to do so, it examines a wide range of fan video genres and practices including vidding, reaction videos, self-insert TikToks, ASMR videos, Let's Play videos, streams, Bilibili videos, gif loops, fan films, crack videos, animatics, collection videos, deepfakes, fake trailers and fan video essays among others. It features chapters by a range of scholars working in the intersecting fields of digital media studies, fan studies, media studies, cultural studies, audience studies, video game studies, transcultural studies and videographic studies. A field defining collection, this Handbook will be of interest to students and scholars of digital media studies, fan studies, media studies, cultural studies, videographic studies and beyond.

Macdonald,2015-11-06 By the turn of the 21st century animation production has grown to thousands of hours a year in the People s Republic of China PRC Despite this and unlike American blockbuster productions and the diverse genres of Japanese anime much animation from the PRC remains relatively unknown This book is an historical and theoretical study of animation in the PRC Although the Wan Brothers produced the first feature length animated film in 1941 the industry as we know it today truly began in the 1950s at the Shanghai Animation Film Studio SAFS which remained the sole animation studio until the 1980s Considering animation in China as a convergence of the institutions of education fine arts literature popular culture and film the book takes comparative approaches that link SAFS animation to contemporary cultural production including American and Japanese animation Pop Art and mass media theory Through readings of classic films such as Princess Iron Fan Uproar in Heaven Princess Peacock and Nezha Conquers the Dragon King this study represents a revisionist history of animation in the PRC as a form of postmodernism with Chinese characteristics As a theoretical exploration of animation in the People s Republic of China this book will appeal greatly to students and scholars of animation film studies Chinese studies cultural studies political and cultural theory     Beyond The Chinese Connection Crystal S.

Anderson,2013-06 Examines the rise of post 1970s Afro Asian cultural production that embodied the aspirations and contradictions entailed in forging Black Asian identification and solidarity     Chinese Animated Film and Ideology, 1940s-1970s Olga Bobrowska,2022-10-24 This book examines animated propaganda produced in mainland China from the 1940s to the 1970s The analyses of four puppet films demonstrate how animation and Maoist doctrine became tightly but dynamically entangled The book firstly contextualizes the production conditions and ideological contents of The Emperor s Dream 1947 the first puppet film made at the Northeast Film Studio in Changchun It then examines the artistic intellectual and ideological backbone of the puppet film Wanderings of Sanmao 1958 The book presents the means and methods applied in puppet animation filmmaking that complied with the ideological principles established by the radical supporters of Mao

Zedong in the first half of the 1960s discussing Rooster Crows at Midnight 1964 The final chapter discusses The Little 8th Route Army 1973 created by You Lei in the midst of the Cultural Revolution This book will be of great interest to those in the fields of animation studies film studies political science Chinese area studies and Chinese philology Routledge Handbook of Chinese Gender & Sexuality Jamie J. Zhao, Hongwei Bao, 2024-04-09 This Handbook offers a rich survey of topics concerning historical modern and contemporary Chinese genders and sexualities Exploring gender and sexuality as key dimensions of China's modernisation and globalisation this Handbook effectively situates Chinese gender and sexuality in transnational and transcultural contexts It also spotlights nonnormative practices and emancipatory potentials within mainstream heterosexual dominated and patriarchally structured settings It serves as a definitive study research and resource guide for emerging gender and sexuality issues in the Chinese speaking world This Handbook covers interdisciplinary methodologies perspectives and topics including History Literature Art Fashion Migration Translation Sex and desire Film and television Digital media Star and fan cultures Fantasies and lives of women and LGBTQ groups Social movements Transnational feminist and queer politics Paying acute attention to nonnormative genders and sexualities and emphasising the intersectionality of gender sexuality nationality ethnicity and class this Handbook offers an essential field defining text to Chinese gender and sexuality studies Fairy-Tale Films Beyond Disney Jack Zipes, Pauline

Greenhill, Kendra Magnus-Johnston, 2015-09-16 The fairy tale has become one of the dominant cultural forms and genres internationally thanks in large part to its many manifestations on screen Yet the history and relevance of the fairy tale film have largely been neglected In this follow up to Jack Zipes's award winning book The Enchanted Screen 2011 Fairy Tale Films Beyond Disney offers the first book length multinational multidisciplinary exploration of fairy tale cinema Bringing together twenty three of the world's top fairy tale scholars to analyze the enormous scope of these films Zipes and colleagues Pauline Greenhill and Kendra Magnus Johnston present perspectives on film from every part of the globe from Hayao Miyazaki's Spirited Away to Jan van Kester's Alice to the transnational adaptations of 1001 Nights and Hans Christian Andersen Contributors explore filmic traditions in each area not only from their different cultural backgrounds but from a range of academic fields including criminal justice studies education film studies folkloristics gender studies and literary studies Fairy Tale Films Beyond Disney offers readers an opportunity to explore the intersections disparities historical and national contexts of its subject and to further appreciate what has become an undeniably global phenomenon

Techno-Orientalism 2.0 David S. Roh, Betsy Huang, Greta Aiyu Niu, Christopher T. Fan, Greta A. Niu, 2025-07-15 Techno Orientalism 2.0 addresses the impact of a volatile post COVID present on speculative futures by and about Asians The volume engages with techno Orientalist inflections in recent high profile and lesser known Asian and Asian American speculative fiction film television anime art music journalism architecture state sponsored policy and infrastructural projects and the now dominant China Panic Race and the Animated Bodyscape Francis M. Agnoli, 2023-04-21 Race does not exist in animation it must instead be constructed and ascribed Yet over the past few years there has been growing discourse on the intersection of these two subjects within both academic and popular circles In Race and the Animated Bodyscape: Constructing and Ascribing a Racialized Asian Identity in Avatar and Korra author Francis M Agnoli introduces and illustrates the concept of the animated bodyscape looking specifically at the US television series Avatar: The Last Airbender and its sequel The Legend of Korra Rather than consider animated figures as unified wholes Agnoli views them as complexes of signs made up of visual aural and narrative components that complement contradict and otherwise interact with each other in the creation of meaning Every one of these components matters as they are each the result of a series of creative decisions made by various personnel across different production processes This volume re constructs production narratives for Avatar and Korra using original and preexisting interviews with cast and crew members as well as behind the scenes material Each chapter addresses how different types of components were generated tracing their development from preliminary research to final animation In doing so this project identifies the interlocking sets of production communities behind the making of animation and thus behind the making of racialized identities Due to its illusory and constructed nature animation affords untapped opportunities to approach the topic of race in media looking beyond the role of the actor and taking into account the various factors and processes behind the production of racialized performances The analysis of race and animation calls for a holistic approach one that treats both the visual and the aural as intimately connected This volume offers a blueprint for how to approach the analysis of race and animation
