The Encyclopedia of Best Films Jay Robert Nash, 2019-10-23 This all inclusive A Z encyclopedia by one of the world's foremost experts on cinema provides comprehensive annotations of the best films produced from 1914 on. The work offers more than 5 000 three to five star entries: three stars good, four stars excellent, five stars masterpiece, and yes, author Jay Robert Nash has viewed every single one of them as well as many more that did not make the cut. In addition to a precis, each film's entry also includes a listing of the cast as well as the key principles involved in production from the director to the hair stylist. Especially unique to this book is a rating system that helps parents determine whether or not a film is appropriate for their children. Unlike the industry rating system which can be influenced by studio lobbying, Nash objectively evaluates each film and confers upon it one of four recommendations for viewing: recommended, acceptable, cautionary, and unacceptable. Backmatter includes a list of top films by genre, i.e. animated, drama, sports, mystery, adventure, etc., as well as an annotated name index listing all persons mentioned along with their dates of birth and death. Rounding out this essential volume for the film buff are over 500 still photos from the author's private collection.

American International Pictures Rob Craig, 2019-03-05 American International Pictures was in many ways the missing link between big budget Hollywood studios, poverty row B movie factories, and low rent exploitation movie distributors. AIP first targeted teen audiences with science fiction, horror, and fantasy, but soon grew to encompass many genres and demographics. At times it was indistinguishable from many of the major studios. From Abby Cadabby to Zontar, this filmography lists more than 800 feature films, television series, and TV specials by AIP and its partners and subsidiaries. Special attention is given to American International Television, the TV arm of AIP, and an appendix lists the complete AITV catalog. The author also discusses films produced by founders James H. Nicholson and Samuel Z. Arkoff after they left the company.
