The Music of Sound Ian Jarvis, 2019-05-09 A modern day Sherlock Holmes Bernie Quist operates as a consultant detective from Baker Avenue in York. His assistant is Watson although this Watson is a youth from the Grimpen housing estate and he is definitely not a doctor. The mismatched duo take on bizarre cases which invariably lead into the realms of the supernatural a shadowy world. Quist is all too familiar with Rex Grant has vanished from a hotel without paying the bill but the police seem more concerned with the murdered girl in his room. Investigating their friend's disappearance Quist and Watson are intrigued by his connection to the superstar singer Ligeia and the lethal mercenary soldiers who act as her management team. Irana Adler heads the squad a female Colonel who doesn't take kindly to intrusion and Quist is amazed to discover that Laurel and Hardy are part of the singer's entourage something which is not only surprising but pretty much impossible. A dark and very peculiar game is afoot and Ligeia's musical voice may not be as sweet as it sounds.

Cultural Capital and Parental Involvement Siu-hang Kong, 2023-01-12 This book uses Pierre Bourdieu's cultural capital model as a theoretical framework for exploring how students in Beijing and Hong Kong perceive parental influences, their parents' cultural capital and support on their participation in musical activities. By studying students' perceptions of their parents' cultural capital and support for their musical activities this book revisits the applicability of Bourdieu's cultural capital model in the contemporary Chinese context and reveals how inequality in terms of parental cultural capital governs parents' support and influences the intergenerational transmission of cultural capital which in turn contributes to inequality in terms of students' cultural capital.
