The Literary Politics of Mitteleuropa Yvonne Zivkovic, 2021 Shows how postwar writers in Austria and Yugoslavia reimagined the concept of Mitteleuropa Central Europe as a cultural space between nostalgia and totalitarianism The German term Mitteleuropa or Central Europe was never just a geographical concept it connoted extending German influence to the east In the 1980s the eastern European dissident writers György Konrád Czesław Miłosz and Milan Kundera revived the concept to counter a perceived Cold War memory vacuum aligning themselves with the multiethnic and multilingual legacy of the Habsburg Empire Their observations gave rise to a protracted public debate that posited literature against politics This debate was both anticipated and expanded upon in postwar literary works by Ingeborg Bachmann Peter Handke and Christoph Ransmayr in Austria and Danilo Kiš Aleksandar Tišma and Dubravka Ugrešić in the former Yugoslavia all of whom questioned notions of geographic identity and national allegiance by imagining Mitteleuropa as a cultural space between nostalgia and totalitarianism Yvonne Zivkovic draws on space and memory studies to show how Mitteleuropa emerged as an alternate memory discourse that reveals deep ties between the Second Austrian Republic and the Socialist Federal Republic of Yugoslavia The writers discussed address the major themes of the 1980s debate traumatic memory geographic displacement and transnationalism but also share a literary aesthetics that privileges the intersections of prose fiction and the essay the literary fragment and intertextuality Zivkovic's book shows the persistence of Mitteleuropa as a literary network and as a cultural collective that examines civic values against public tendencies of memory manipulation begins The True History of the First Mrs Meredith and Other Lesser Lives an uncommon biography devoted to one of those lesser lives As the author points out A lesser life does not seem lesser to the person who leads one Such sympathy and curiosity compelled Diane Johnson to research Mary Ellen Peacock Meredith 1821 1861 the daughter of the famous artist Thomas Love Peacock 1785 1866 and first wife of the equally famous poet George Meredith 1828 1909 Her life treated perfunctorily and prudishly in biographies of Peacock or Meredith is here exquisitely and unhurriedly given its due What emerges is the portrait of a brilliant well educated woman raised unconventionally by her father only to feel more forcefully the constraints of the Victorian era First published in 1972 Lesser Lives has been a key text for feminists and biographers alike a book that reimagined what biography might be both in terms of subject and style Biographies of other lesser lives have since followed in its footsteps but few have the wit elegance and empathy of Johnson s seminal work The Prince Of Fire Radmila Gorup,Nadezda Obradovic,2014-08-09 Winner of the 1998 Misha Djordjevic Award for the best book on Serbian culture in English Editors Gorup and Obradovic have collected stories from thirty five outstanding writers in this first English anthology of Serbian fiction in thirty years The anthology representing a great variety of literary styles and themes includes works by established writers with international reputations as well as promising new writers spanning the generation born between 1930 and 1960 These stories may lead to a greater understanding of the current events in the former Yugoslavia American Book Publishing Record ,1998 The Routledge History Handbook of Central and Eastern Europe in the Twentieth Century Włodzimierz Borodziej,Ferenc Laczó,Joachim von Puttkamer,2020-08-02 Intellectual Horizons offers a pioneering transnational and comparative treatment of key thematic areas in the intellectual and cultural history of Central and Eastern Europe in the twentieth century For most of the twentieth century Central and Eastern European ideas and cultures constituted an integral part of wider European trends However the intellectual and cultural history of this diverse region has rarely been incorporated sufficiently into nominally comprehensive histories of Europe This volume redresses this underrepresentation and provides a more balanced perspective on the recent past of the continent through original critical overviews of themes ranging from the social and conceptual history of intellectuals and histories of political thought and historiography to literary visual and religious cultures to perceptions and representations of the region in the twentieth century While structured thematically individual contributions are organized chronologically They emphasize where relevant generational experiences agendas and accomplishments while taking into account the sharp ruptures that characterize the period The third in a four volume set on Central and Eastern Europe in the twentieth century it is the go to resource for understanding the intellectual and cultural history of this dynamic region A King Alone Jean Giono,2019-06-25 An existential detective story by one of France s most popular modern writers set in a mid nineteenth century mountain village available in English for the first time A King Alone is set in a remote Alpine village that is cut off from the world by rugged mountains and by long months when the ground is covered with snow and the heavens with cloud One such winter villagers begin mysteriously to disappear Soon the village is paralyzed by terror which gives way to relief and eager anticipation when the outsider Langlois arrives to investigate What he discovers however will leave no one reassured and his reappearance in the village a few years later now assigned the task of guarding it from wolves awakens those troubling memories A man of few words a regal manner and military efficiency Langlois baffles and fascinates the villagers whose different responses to him shape Jean Giono's increasingly charged narrative This novel about a tiny community at the dangerous edge of things and a man of law who is a man alone could be described as a metaphysical Western It unfolds with the uncanny inevitability and disturbing intensity of a dream

Around the Point Roman Katsman, Ber Kotlerman, Hillel Weiss, 2014-03-17 Around the Point is a unique collection that brings to readers the works of almost thirty scholars dealing with Jewish literature in various Jewish and non Jewish languages such as Hebrew Yiddish Ladino French Italian German Hungarian Serbian Polish and Russian Although this volume does not cover all the languages of Jewish letters it is a significant endeavor in establishing the realm of multilingual international study of Jewish literature and culture Among the questions under discussion are the problems of the definition of Jewish identity and literature literary history language choice and diglossy lingual and cultural influences intertextuality Holocaust literature Kabbala and Hassidism Jewish poetics theatre and art and the problems of the acceptance of literature
