U.S. News & World Report ,2005 Grand Finales Susan Gubar,2025-06-10 One of our most formidable literary critics explores how nine women artists flourished creatively in their final acts In 2008 academic and scholar Susan Gubar was told by a trusted oncologist that she had only a few years left to live Though she outlived that dire prognosis this brush with mortality refocused her attention on the boons of a longevity she did not expect to experience She began to think In the last years of our lives can we shape and change our creative capabilities The resulting volume Grand Finales answers this question with a resounding yes Despite the losses generally associated with aging quite a few writers painters sculptors musicians and dancers have managed to extend and repurpose their creative energies Gubar spotlights very creative old ladies writers painters sculptors musicians and dancers from the past and in our times Each of Grand Finales nine riveting chapters features women artists George Eliot Colette Georgia O Keeffe Isak Dinesen Marianne Moore Louise Bourgeois Mary Lou Williams Gwendolyn Brooks and Katherine Dunham who transformed the last stage of existence into a rousing conclusion Gubar draws on their late lives and works to suggest that seniority can become a time of reinvention and renewal With pizzazz bravado and geezer machismo she counters the discrediting of elderly women and clarifies the environments relationships activities and attitudes that sponsor a creative old age Purpose and a Paycheck Chris Farrell,2019-02-05 Purpose and a Paycheck tells the compelling story of how a growing movement of older entrepreneurs and part time workers are creating a stronger and more vibrant economy People 65 and older will account for 20 percent of the population in 2030

up from 13 percent in 2000 Many prognosticators blame the aging population for the stagnating economy citing that as more people retire they will stop working as relatively fewer working people have to support growing numbers of dependent elderly Purpose and a Paycheck debunks this line of thought by showing how a growing movement of elderly entrepreneurs and part time workers are creating conditions for a stronger economy Growing numbers of Americans are no longer retiring in the traditional sense and the numbers are striking such as the labor force participation rate of men 60 years and over has risen nearly one third from a low of 26 percent in 1996 to 35 percent in 2014 the comparable rate for women is from 15 percent to 25 percent and 25 5 percent of new business ventures in 2016 were started by the 55 to 64 year old age group up from 14 8 percent in 1996 America s aging society and workforce is redefining work for all generations and is a strong force in shaping the U S economy and society alongside globalization automation and climate change Reframing aging will result in faster rates of economic growth and higher living standards for all of us in addition to a more fulfilling and financially secure second half of life for our aging population Zitty ,2006 Catalogue of the Harvard University Fine Arts Library, the Fogg Art Museum Harvard University.
