News Reporting And Writing:

Dynamics of News Reporting and Writing Vincent F. Filak, 2017-11-29 Journalists in today's media environment require a skill set that can be adapted to a variety of media. Dynamics of News Reporting and Writing: Foundational Skills for a Digital Age teaches students the foundational skills they need to successfully report and write the news in an evolving digital landscape. Author Vince F. Filak offers guidance on the essential skills of the industry while weaving in the how-to's of writing digital news. Recognizing that well-crafted stories are founded on sharp prose, this new text covers the foundational elements of newswriting such as lead writing, structure, and storytelling, while also teaching students how to think critically and determine what matters most to their readers. Key Features: An audience-centric approach encourages students to understand why and how news is relevant to the lives of their readers before they even start digging into their stories. Write Now Exercises provide students with an opportunity to immediately practice the core set of skills they have just learned and apply these skills to various platforms. Consider This debates spark classroom discussions by encouraging students to take a closer look at a current issue or ideological dilemma and make a valid case for their position. Thoughts from a Pro offer students an up-close look at a specific aspect of reporting and writing from a professional who is plying their trade each day.

News Reporting and Writing Brian S. Brooks, 2002 News Reporting and Writing Brian S. Brooks, 1980 Comprehensive coverage of news writing and reporting skills. This text uses a step-by-step approach to teach students the skills they need to become effective writers and reporters. Writing coverage includes crafting leads using correct grammar and lively language, quoting sources, and using story structures, while specific chapters cover various story types. Reporting coverage includes conducting interviews, researching using computers, and covering a beat. More on writing for multiple media than any other news writing and reporting text. A new section, Writing for Specific Media, includes practical advice on writing for broadcast, radio, television, online outlets, and public relations, preparing students for the realities of today's workplace. Journalism CD-ROM simulation and up-to-date technology coverage. The unique simulation CD-ROM included free with the book allows students to cover the actual shooting of a police officer in real time and includes text, audio, and video resources. The text offers more guidance for using technology in journalism than any comparable book, including full chapters on computer-assisted reporting and writing for online outlets. Basics of News Reporting and Writing Enock Sibesolholha

Mukokoma, 2003 News Reporting and Writing Melvin Mencher, 1997 This edition continues to illustrate the principles of news reporting and writing with telling examples from print and broadcast journalism. Students are shown journalistic principles and concepts so that they may write accurate, precise, and captivating news stories. Increasingly important news topics such as religion, education, domestic violence, juvenile crime, and campus crime are included in this edition. Melvin Mencher's News Reporting and Writing Melvin Mencher, 2011 News Reporting and Writing Melvin Mencher, 2002 NWR Nine is the 25th Anniversary Edition of this classic text. Broadcast News Writing, Reporting, and Producing Frank Barnas,Ted White,2013-10-08 Jargon buster convergent journalism Media convergence is the most significant development in the news industry in the last century The ability to interchange text audio and visual communication over the Internet has fundamentally transformed the way news organizations operate. Convergence has enabled media companies to gather, disseminate, and share information over a variety of platforms. Throughout the history of journalism, it has been common for journalists to study one medium, such as traditional print or broadcast, and to anticipate a career working only in their chosen field. However, the 21st-century journalist has fluidity to write and deliver news content in a variety of formats. <http://www.convergencejournalism.com>

Broadcast News Writing: Reporting and Producing presents a solid foundation for any student learning how to become a broadcast journalist in today's world of convergent journalism. It is more important than ever that broadcast textbooks cover the most current trends in media. Convergent journalism, the coverage of news across multiple delivery platforms such as the internet, television, podcasts, iPods, blogs, etc., is here to stay. Broadcast journalism continues to morph as newer and more advanced content platforms are hatched and developed, and broadcast journalists must understand how to write, report, and produce for multiple platforms simultaneously. Just one crucial fact remains: students will need training on how to perform successfully in a world in which current events aren't just shown on the ten o'clock evening news. Broadcast News Writing: Reporting and Producing will be completely overhauled to reflect the trends of convergent journalism on every page. New co-author Frank Barnas brings a multi-faceted perspective of writing, reporting, and producing that allows for multi-platform delivery systems and shows students with real-world examples the functions and practices of today's media. The new edition will be rewritten and restructured to accommodate common 16-week course modules and will be divided into four major sections: the news gathering, writing, reporting, and producing. Sidebars featuring how examples used in the text relate to convergence in journalism help students to draw connections easily between current stories and trends in the industry. The comprehensive approach of this text brings a multi-faceted perspective of writing, reporting, and producing that is needed more than ever in today's world of convergent journalism. This newest edition is being completely overhauled by the experienced journalist Frank Barnas. New photos and illustrations, a restructuring of the text, expanded end-of-chapter exercises, newer and more relevant examples, and more information on producing all contribute to giving readers what they need most: a nuanced understanding of how the media of today function in a world without news boundaries.

Fundamentals of News

Reporting and Writing with Handbook Teslim O. Lawal, 2001

The Responsible Journalist Jennie Dear, Faron Scott, 2014-10

The Responsible Journalist: An Introduction to News Reporting and Writing teaches reporting and writing skills from a liberal arts perspective with the understanding that at its heart, journalism is about public service. The text presents journalism as an approach, one that involves careful thought, ethical decision-making, skepticism, an attention to accuracy, and an emphasis on truthfulness.

News Alfred Lawrence Lorenz, John Vivian, 1996

In News Reporting and Writing, Lorenz and Vivian fully integrate coverage of writing for newspaper, radio, television, and public relations. News is intended for beginning writing and reporting courses in departments of journalism or mass communication, whether they take an integrated media writing or straight forward news editorial approach This text is the first to treat broadcast news and public relations writing as integrated parts of the whole news spectrum not as afterthoughts Hundreds of examples of the best work by both professional and student newswriters add depth and scope to coverage of writing general assignment reporting news gathering legal and ethical ramifications and the application of news writing and reporting skills to careers in mass media Up to date coverage mirrors the latest journalistic practices and challenges including a major section on computer assisted journalism
