Newsweek Fiasco In Iran:

Newsweek, 1998 The Cover Story Index, 1960-1989 Robert Skapura, 1990 An index to the cover stories of Newsweek Time and U S and World Report from 1960 until 1989 Democracy without Citizens Robert M. Entman, 1990-09-27 The free press cannot be free Robert Entman asserts Inevitably it is dependent In this penetrating critique of American journalism and the political process Entman identifies a vicious circle of interdependence as the key dilemma facing reporters and editors To become sophisticated citizens he argues Americans need high quality independent political journalism yet to stay in business while producing such journalism news organizations would need an audience of sophisticated citizens As Entman shows there is no easy way out of this dilemma which has encouraged the decay of democratic citizenship as well as the media s continuing failure to live up to their own highest ideals Addressing widespread despair over the degeneration of presidential campaigns Entman argues that the media system virtually compels politicians to practice demagoguery Entman confronts a provocative array of issues how the media s reliance on elite groups and individuals for information inevitably slants the news despite adherence to objectivity standards why the media hold government accountable for its worst errors such as scandals and foreign misadventures only after it s too late to prevent them how the interdependence of the media and their audience molds public opinion in ways neither group alone can control why greater media competition does not necessarily mean better journalism why the abolition of the FCC s Fairness Doctrine could make things worse Entman sheds fascinating light on important news events of the past decade He compares for example coverage of the failed hostage rescue in 1980 which subjected President Carter to a barrage of criticism with coverage of the 1983 bombing that killed 241 Marines in Lebanon an incident in which President Reagan largely escaped blame He shows how various factors unrelated to the reality of the events themselves the apparent popularity of Reagan and unpopularity of Carter differences in the way the Presidents publicly framed the incidents the potent symbols skillfully manipulated by Reagan s but not by Carter s news managers produced two very different kinds of reportage Entman concludes with some thoughtful suggestions for improvement Chiefly he proposes the creation of subsidized party based news outlets as a way of promoting new modes of news gathering and analysis of spurring the established media to more innovative coverage and of increasing political awareness and participation Such suggestions along with the author s probing media criticisms make this book essential reading for anyone concerned about the state of democracy in America The Cover Story Index, 1960 The Rhetorical Construction of Allegations of Political Corruption in Case Studies of Nixon, Carter, Reagan, and Clinton Timothy A. Borchers, 1996 The Modern Presidency and Crisis Rhetoric Amos Kiewe, 1994 This volume examines how presidents from Truman to Bush rhetorically approached and managed political military judicial legislative and economic crises during their presidencies Editor Amos Kiewe assembles new essays by communications scholars who look at rhetoric initiated during national crises and account for various rhetorical developments affected by crises changes in presidential rhetoric and rhetorical and situational crisis constraints Their studies suggest similarities in rhetoric in different types of crises and yield resources for postulating patterns of crisis rhetoric Each chapter's author presents a crisis rhetoric case study analyzing initial strategies and tactics shifts in rhetorical tactics adjustments of discourse to particular phases in the crises and unique rhetorical approaches designed to accommodate unexpected turns of events The contributors discuss how presidents use rhetorical inventions flip flops face saving posturing and even silence to diffuse crises Specific topics include Eisenhower's response to the constitutional crisis in Little Rock Kennedy and the Berlin Wall crisis Johnson and the Kennedy assassination Nixon and Watergate and Bush and the Persian Gulf Crisis Recommended for political scientists and communication theorists The Middle East, Abstracts and Index, 2006 American Mass Media Robert Atwan, Barry Orton, William Vesterman, 1986 The Dream Machine Richard Whittle, 2010-04-27 A fascinating and authoritative narrative history of the V 22 Osprey revealing the inside story of the most controversial piece of military hardware ever developed for the United States Marine Corps When the Marines decided to buy a helicopter airplane hybrid tiltrotor called the V 22 Osprey they saw it as their dream machine The tiltrotor was the aviation equivalent of finding the Northwest Passage an aircraft able to take off land and hover with the agility of a helicopter yet fly as fast and as far as an airplane Many predicted it would reshape civilian aviation The Marines saw it as key to their very survival By 2000 the Osprey was nine years late and billions over budget bedeviled by technological hurdles business rivalries and an epic political battle over whether to build it at all Opponents called it one of the worst boondoggles in Pentagon history The Marines were eager to put it into service anyway Then two crashes killed twenty three Marines They still refused to abandon the Osprey even after the Corps own proud reputation was tarnished by a national scandal over accusations that a commander had ordered subordinates to lie about the aircraft's problems Based on in depth research and hundreds of interviews The Dream Machine recounts the Marines quarter century struggle to get the Osprey into combat Whittle takes the reader from the halls of the Pentagon and Congress to the war zone of Iraq from the engineer's drafting table to the cockpits of the civilian and Marine pilots who risked their lives flying the Osprey and sometimes lost them He reveals the methods motives and obsessions of those who designed sold bought flew and fought for the tiltrotor These stories including never before published eyewitness accounts of the crashes that made the Osprey notorious not only chronicle an extraordinary chapter in Marine Corps history but also provide a fascinating look at a machine that could still revolutionize air travel Laurentian University Review Laurentian University of Sudbury, 1981 Scandal and Silence Robert M. Entman, 2012-05-14 The author argues that media neglect most corruption providing too little not too much scandal coverage scandals arise from rational controlled processes not emotional frenzies and when scandals happen it's not the media but government and political parties that drive the process and any excesses that might occur significant scandals are difficult for news organizations to initiate and harder for them to maintain and bring to appropriate closure for these reasons cover
