Creativity from Suburban Nowheres Ilja Van Damme, Ruth McManus, Michiel Dehaene, 2023-07-26 Looking at suburbs as places of creativity gives rise to novel and thought provoking narratives that typically run counter to the idea that suburbs are sites of ordinary mundane and everyday practices Far from being geographies of nowhere dull materialistic and monotone suburbs are unpacked as being heterogeneous and historically layered places of living work and creation Situating creativity in place and time Creativity from Suburban Nowheres displaces mainstream understandings of creativity and widespread stereotypes commonly associated with the suburbs Contributors explore the particular forms of creativity that suburbs elicit both in the process of their making materialization and community construction and in the myriad ways in which suburbs are inhabited and experienced They highlight accounts of suburbs as places that give people the space and latitude to shape individual and collective identities through creative practices at odds with mainstream culture and often remote from the classic agglomeration assets associated with inner cities Anchored in historical and geographical research this volume highlights how and in what forms creativity should be understood in the suburbs why and when creativity can be found and how the notion of suburban creativity overthrows ingrained and dominant normative viewpoints Rather than seeing creativity arise despite its suburban location Creativity from Suburban Nowheres illuminates the emancipatory potential of suburbs for creativity

Sustainability Citizenship in Cities Ralph Horne, John Fien, Beau B. Beza, Anitra Nelson, 2016-04-28 Urban sustainability citizenship situates citizens as social change agents with an ethical and self interested stake in living sustainably with the rest of Earth Such citizens not only engage in sustainable household practices but respect the importance of awareness raising discussion and debates on sustainability policies for the common good and maintenance of Earth's ecosystems Sustainability Citizenship in Cities seeks to explain how sustainability citizenship can manifest in urban built environments as both responsibilities and rights Contributors elaborate on the concept of urban sustainability citizenship as a participatory work in progress with the aim of setting its practice firmly on the agenda This collection will prompt practitioners and researchers to rethink contemporary mobilisations of urban citizens challenged by various environmental crises such as climate change in various socio economic settings This book is a valuable resource for students academics and professionals working in various disciplines and across a range of interdisciplinary fields such as urban environment and planning citizenship as practice environmental sociology contemporary politics and governance environmental philosophy media and communications and human geography

Community Arts and Culture Initiatives in Singapore Zdravko Trivic, 2020-09-15 What Can Space Do for the Arts What Can Arts Do for Space and What Can Arts and Space Do for the Community Through the lenses of creative placemaking and neighbourhood arts ecology Trivic re-examines the position of community arts in the spatial social and cultural landscape Emphasising urban design considerations of complex interdependent relationships between arts space and people he re-explores the role of community based arts activities in shaping urban neighbourhoods enriching public life and empowering communities This is divided into an analysis of spatial opportunities for the arts in the neighbourhood and a study of the impacts of bringing arts and culture activities into local neighbourhoods and communities using Singapore's nodal approach as a developed case study Using spatial opportunity analysis the book demonstrates a step by step procedure for identification and evaluation of the neighbourhood spaces that work best for community arts and culture activities In the study of impacts Trivic proposes a holistic framework for capturing and evaluating the non economic impacts of arts and culture on space society well being education and participation An invaluable template for arts event organisers and artists to assess and maximise the outcomes of their creative efforts in local neighbourhoods as well as an important reading for students and practitioners of neighbourhood planning urban design and creative placemaking Oxford Textbook of Creative Arts, Health, and Wellbeing Stephen Clift, Paul M.
