Modern Religious Architecture in Germany, Ireland and Beyond Lisa Godson, Kathleen James-Chakraborty, 2019-03-07
Modernity and religion are not mutually exclusive Setting German and Irish church synagogue and mosque architecture side by side over the last century highlights the place for the celebration of the new within faiths whose appeal lies in part in the stability of belief they offer across time Inspired by radically modern German churches of the 1920s and 1930s this volume offers new insights into designers of all three types of sacred buildings working at home and abroad It offers new scholarship on the unknown phenomenon of mid century ecclesiastical architecture in sub Saharan Africa by Irish designers a critical appraisal of the overlooked Frank Lloyd Wright trained Andrew Devane and an analysis of accommodating difficult pasts and challenging futures with contemporary synagogue and mosque architecture in Germany With a focus on influence and processes alongside conservationists and historians it features critical insights by the designers of some of the most celebrated contemporary sacred buildings including Niall McLaughlin who writes on his multiple award winning Bishop Edward King Chapel and Amandus Sattler architect of the innovative Herz Jesu Kirche Munich The Migrant's Time Saloni Mathur, 2011-09-27 The conditions of alienation and exclusion are inextricably linked to the experience of the migrant This ground breaking volume explores both the increasing emergence of the theme of migration as a dominant subject matter in art as well as the ways in which the varied mobilities of a globalized world have radically reshaped art's conditions of production reception and display In a wide ranging selection of essays fourteen distinguished scholars in the fields of visual studies art history literary studies global studies and art criticism explore the universality of conditions of global migration and interdependence inviting a rethinking of existing perspectives in postcolonial transnational and diaspora studies and laying the foundation for empirical and theoretical directions beyond the terms of these traditional frameworks Nazi Buildings, Cold War Traces and Governmentality in Post-Unification Berlin Clare Copley, 2020-05-28 Bringing together approaches from cultural and urban history as well as German studies and political theory Clare Copley's probing study reflects on post unification responses to iconic Nazi architecture to reveal insights into power legitimacy and memory politics in the Berlin Republic Analysing public debates physical interventions into the buildings and the structuring of the memory landscapes around them the book demonstrates that the politics of memory impact not just upon the built environment of the post dictatorship city but upon the way decisions about it are made In doing so Nazi Buildings Cold War Traces and Governmentality in Post Unification Berlin makes the case for conceiving of a specifically post authoritarian governmentality and uses the responses to constructions like Goering's Aviation Ministry Tempelhof Airport and the Olympic complex to explore its features Building Modern Antiquity Georgia Giannakopoulou, 2024-11-29 This book considers post 19th century Athens as a unique instance of a secret side of metropolitan capitalism With a focus on modern antiquity as the hidden element of the dialectic between the past and the present it suggests that the sociological study of one of the great

European capital cities a city not intended as a modern capital and its architectural representations may expose part of the veiled processes of the reconstruction of the past thus shedding light on the abuse of antiquity for the celebration of European capitalist metropolitan modernity From the glorious white marble cityscape of the 19th century that aimed at re enchanting metropolitan modernity to the inglorious grey reinforced concrete 21st century metropolis modern Athens exposes the battle between the modern and a modern image of antiquity a false socially constructed historiography born of the dialectics between the ancient and the modern the new and the old collective memory and collective forgetting As such The Building of a Modern Antiquity will appeal to scholars of sociology with interests in social and critical theory urban studies sociology of architecture and visual sociology

Arieh Sharon and Modern Architecture in Israel Eran Neuman,2023-11-30 Arieh Sharon and Modern Architecture in Israel Building Social Pragmatism offers the first comprehensive survey of the work of Arieh Sharon and analyzes and discusses his designs and plans in relation to the emergence of the State of Israel A graduate of the Bauhaus Sharon worked for a few years at the office of Hannes Mayer before returning to Mandatory Palestine There he established his office which was occupied in its first years in planning kibbutzim and residential buildings in Tel Aviv After the establishment of the State of Israel in 1948 Arieh Sharon became the director and chief architect of the National Planning Department where he was asked to devise the young country s first national masterplan Known as the Sharon Plan it was instrumental in shaping the development of the new nation During the 1950s and 1960s Sharon designed many of Israel s institutions including hospitals and buildings on university campuses This book presents Sharon s exceptionally wide range of work and examines his perception of architecture in both socialist and pragmatist terms It also explores Sharon s modernist approach to architecture and his subsequent shift to Brutalist architecture when he partnered with Benjamin Idelson in the 1950s and when his son Eldar Sharon joined the office in 1964 Thus the book contributes a missing chapter in the historiography of Israeli architecture in particular and of modern architecture overall This book will be of interest to researchers in architecture modern architecture Israel studies Middle Eastern studies and migration of knowledge
