Increasing Student Engagement and Retention Using Multimedia Technologies Laura A. Wankel, Patrick Blessinger, 2013-03-25 Multimedia and video related technologies are reshaping and reframing the practice of teaching and learning in higher education This volume critically examines new research on how multimedia technologies are being used in higher education to increase learner engagement and collaboration in and out of the classroom Learning to Teach Foreign Languages in the Secondary School Norbert Pachler, Michael Evans, Ana Redondo, Linda Fisher, 2013-12-17 Praise for previous editions A wealth of theory research practical advice case studies and tasks in one volume Indispensable for both HEI tutors and mentors and an important book to recommend to all MFL students Language Learning Journal Presenting clear straightforward factual information on all current issues facing MFL student teachers An excellent reference guide during the first years of teaching Mentoring and Tutoring Learning to Teach Foreign Languages in the Secondary School has established itself as the leading textbook for student teachers of foreign languages in the UK and internationally The practical focus is underpinned by a theoretical perspective and backed up by the latest research encouraging you to develop a personal approach to foreign language teaching This new fourth edition has been comprehensively updated to take account of recent policy and curriculum changes and now covers a range of relevant statutory frameworks Fully revised chapters cover the key knowledge and skills essential for becoming a foreign language teacher What can we learn from research into language teaching and learning Teaching methods and learning strategies Creating a meaningful learning environment Transition from Primary to Secondary The role of digital technologies Teaching in the target language Receptive skills and productive skills Teaching and learning grammar Planning and reflecting on classroom practice Pupil differences and differentiation Assessment for and of learning It includes many examples of how to analyse practice to ensure pupil learning is maximised together with activities and tasks to support you as you analyse your own learning and performance Learning to Teach Foreign Languages in the Secondary School provides practical help and support for many of the situations and potential challenges you are faced with in school It is an essential purchase for every aspiring secondary foreign languages school teacher Creating Sustainable Careers in Student Affairs Margaret Sallee, 2023-07-03 This book argues that the current structure of student affairs work is not sustainable as it depends on the notion that employees are available to work non stop without any outside responsibilities that is the Ideal Worker Norm The field places inordinate burdens on staff to respond to the needs of students often at the expense of their own families and well being Student affairs professionals can meet the needs of their students without being overworked The problem however is that ideal worker norms pervade higher education and student affairs work thus providing little incentive for institutions to change The authors in this book use ideal worker norms in conjunction with other theories to interrogate the impact on student affairs staff across functional areas institutional types career stage and identity groups The book is divided into three sections chapters in the first section of the book examine various facets of the structure of work in student affairs including the impact of institutional type and different functional areas on employees work lives Chapters in the second section examine the personal toll that working in student affairs can take including emotional labor s impact on well being The final section of the book narrows the focus to explore how different identity groups including mothers fathers and people of color navigate work life issues Challenging ideal worker norms all chapters offer implications for practice for both individuals and institutions

Interculturality in International Education Jane Jackson, 2018-05-15 This comprehensive volume provides a state of the art overview of the key issues and developments in study abroad research and practice with a specific focus on the intercultural and language learning dimensions of the study abroad experience Rather than looking at individual studies the book seeks to capture the full complexity of the language learning and intercultural dynamics of study abroad by exploring a wide range of topics of particular interest to study abroad researchers and practitioners including the role of individual differences identity reconstruction and interculturality the challenges of assessing learning outcomes and recent pedagogical interventions designed to enhance and extend language learning and engagement in these contexts The volume also takes a step back to look at future directions for study abroad research and offers innovative interventions in study abroad programming that emphasise its intercultural elements This book is an authoritative resource for study abroad scholars and researchers in such fields as intercultural communication applied linguistics sociolinguistics and language education

Handbook of Socialization, First Edition Joan E. Grusec, Paul D. Hastings, 2007 Reviews the knowledge on socialization processes from earliest childhood through adolescence and beyond This book presents theories and findings pertaining to family peer school community media and other influences on individual development It covers the important areas of genetics and biology cultural psychology and affective science

Discourses of Student Success Andrea R. Leone-Pizzighella, 2021-09-27 This book offers a linguistic ethnographic account of secondary schooling in Umbria Italy examining the complex intersection of language socioeconomic class social persona and school choice to provide a holistic portrait of the situatedness of student success The book explores the everyday sociolinguistic practices at the three types of Italian secondary schools in Umbria the lyceum the technical institute and the vocational school and the language ideologies and de facto language policies associated with them An analysis of narrative interviews and classroom discourse unpacks the ways in which students are socialized by both peers and teachers into specific academic discourses and specialized forms of knowledge throughout their school careers In those close analyses of the micro interactional contexts of three classrooms drawing on a corpus of naturally occurring classroom discourse the volume illuminates the ways in which certain forms of talk are exalted while others policed and how students either submit to or resist the social labels ascribed to them This account contributes new insights into the ways in which educational institutions are constructed and maintained via talk This book will be of interest to students and scholars interested in educational linguistics linguistic anthropology classroom
