WTF Clinton Emslie, 2025-09-19 A humorous book about taking common sense off life support This collection of satirical short stories and novellas follows a dry stubborn narrator we call the Logical Mind as it wanders through today's chaos with a raised eyebrow and a pocket notebook Each piece pokes at the places where reason went missing and leaves a small marker where we might find it again Politics pop culture family group chats customer kings and online experts with diplomas from the University of Nowhere all make an appearance The tone is warm sharp and human The jokes land then the truth does You will laugh wince and recognize yourself in the best possible way Beneath the humor sits a simple invitation Let's stop pretending we are strangers Let's spot the patterns we share name the stories we tell ourselves and make one quiet repair at a time The Logical Mind is not a scold it is a companion that taps your shoulder and asks kindly Are we sure By the last page you will have met neighbors you thought you disliked found a version of yourself you forgot to root for and felt a nudge to do one practical decent thing before bed Read for the wit stay for the recognition

Uncovering the spirit of freedom and self determination in New Orleans In Under a Black Star Amari Johnson explores what he defines as the maroon impulse among the BlackStar Community in the Algiers neighborhood of New Orleans This community sought autonomy for Black people facing systemic marginalization through denied employment insufficient education and a housing crisis following Hurricane Katrina establishing initiatives such as Kamali Academy a homeschool collective and BlackStar Books and Caff a bookstore and gathering place Instead of appealing to the city they built the community they desired by employing legacies of marronage disengagement flight and reengagement An active participant in the physical and ideological development of these autonomous spaces Johnson provides nuanced insights into the community s work toward liberation and self determination Demonstrating that marronage is a cultural tradition throughout the African Diaspora he focuses on the transtemporal maroon process to show how it is central to the pursuit of autonomy community and freedom From the swamps of southeastern Louisiana across urban obstacles and into BlackStar s creative spaces Johnson s path leads him to ask How did the New Orleans community mobilize the tradition of marronage to create autonomous spaces amid gentrification What forms might the maroon impulse take in the twenty first century This dynamic ethnographic memoir ultimately illuminates marronage as a potent form of liberatory potential offering strategies for similar communities across the country and around the world Notes on Infinity Austin Taylor, 2025-06-03 A Zibby Owens
