Intellectual Citizenship and the Problem of Incarnation Peter Eglin, 2012-11-08 Who has the right to know asks Jean Francois Lyotard Who has the right to eat asks Peter Madaka Wanyama This book asks what does it mean to be a responsible academic in a northern university given the incarnate connections between the university's operations and death and suffering elsewhere Through studies of the neoliberal university in Ontario the imperial university in relation to East Timor the chauvinist university in relation to El Salvador and the gendered university in relation to the Montreal Massacre the author challenges himself and the reader to practice intellectual citizenship everywhere from the classroom to the university commons to the street Peter Eglin argues that the moral imperative to do so derives from the concept of incarnation Here the idea of incarnation is removed from its Christian context and replaced with a political economic interpretation of the embodiment of exploited labor This embodiment is presented through the material goods that link the many's compromised right to eat with the privileged few's right to know Jahresbibliographie Massenkommunikation, 1989 Analysing the Israel Effect in Canada Peter Eglin, 2024-05-21 What is the life of a Palestinian worth to intellectuals in Canadian universities and news media Analyzing the Israel Effect documents and analyzes the discursive and organizational methods by which public criticism of Israel's oppression of the Palestinians is silenced in Canada as experienced through ten episodes in the life of the author over a thirty year period from 1990-2020 in interaction with his university and local and national Canadian news media As a sociological work the book is a critical autoethnography But it is also an atrocity tale a horror story of institutional self-censorship amounting to the abrogation of intellectual responsibility by those specifically charged with upholding it In the end the book is a crossover between academic treatise and journalistic exposé a historical narrative written by an academic from the standpoint of a political participant observer Rajan Philips The Israel Effect itself is analyzed as a three-tier propaganda industry Hasbara is produced in Israel Tier 1 disseminated to Israel Lobby groups around the world Tier 2 and independently reproduced actively and passively by the intellectual institutions universities and news media Tier 3 This book is about the non-Jewish non-Zionist institutions of Tier 3 the onlookers to war
