Negotiating Gendered Identities At Work Place Space And Time:

Negotiating Gendered Identities at Work S. Halford, 2006-05-10 How does gendered organizational life impact on individuals identities in their everyday working lives This question is explored with theoretical insights from disciplines including Sociology Geography History and Gender Studies interwoven with a major new empirical study of doctors and nurses working in the British National Health Service Organizations, Communication, and Health Tyler R.

Harrison, Elizabeth A. Williams, 2015-10-23 Organizations Communication and Health focuses on theories and constructs of organizational communication and their relationship to health The goal of the volume is to offer a current picture of organizational and organizing processes and practices related to health Research in the area of health communication has expanded in recent years and this research has advanced understandings of campaigns patient provider interactions and social support However a gap in the area of health organizations and organizing processes emerged a niche this volume fills It does so by having chapters identify an organizational theory or organizing process and how aspects of that theory relate to health Chapters discuss how to marry theory to practice and the other factors e g organizational structure role occupation industry or environment that need to be considered in the process of utilizing the theory in organizations This volume aimed at advanced undergraduate and graduate students studying health communication as well as health professionals provides useful theory and practice related the organizations and health and issues a call for further theorizing on the practice of health communication in organizations Men in Caring Occupations R. Simpson, 2009-01-15 Exploring how men in service and caring occupations cabin crew primary school teachers nurses and librarians both do and undo gender as they manage the potential mismatch between gender and occupational identity this book engages with the key theoretical concepts of identity visibility and emotions to examine men s experiences Expatriate Identities in Postcolonial Organizations

Pauline Leonard, 2016-04-15 Expatriate Identities in Postcolonial Organizations offers a timely and contemporary discussion of the role of organizations in maintaining or challenging structures and cultures based on racism and discrimination It offers a key exploration of the relations between whiteness identity and organization in migratory contexts It delves into the experiences of expatriates in Hong Kong and the ways in which new identities are constructed in the destinations of migration by exploring the renegotiation of white identities and racialized relationships and the extent to which colonial imaginations still inform contemporary organizations By drawing on existing theoretical and empirical material on post colonialism identity making privileged migration relocation transnational work and organizations this volume brings disparate discussions together in a new and accessible way It will appeal to a range of sociology scholars as well as to those working in the fields of migration gender studies and cultural geography Gendered Journeys, Mobile Emotions Gillian Reynolds, 2016-04-22 It is increasingly acknowledged that an analysis of emotions is necessary to fully understand the social world and recent research on transport travel and mobilities has begun to consider the gendered nature of public and personal life in relation to this sphere The focus of this multidisciplinary and auto biographical volume is the emotional relationship that individuals and groups have with different means of travel Attention is given to a variety of travel experiences including travelling in trains planes cars buses and ships as well as biking cycling running and walking from the perspective of travellers and those who earn their living in assisting these experiences of others Imaginary travel and the relationships between art and travel are also considered Adopting innovative approaches to experiential material ranging from personal memories to empirical research Gendered Journeys Mobile Emotions opens up and illuminates an interdisciplinary debate about the gendered emotive and emotional nature of travelling

Creating Identity Jayashree Kamblé, 2023-04-11 While the world often categorizes women in reductive false binaries careerist versus mother feminine versus fierce romance novels a unique form of the love story offer an imaginative space of mingled alternatives for a heroine on her journey to selfhood In Creating Identity Jayashree Kambl examines the romance genre with its sensile flexibility in retaining what audiences find desirable and discarding what is not by asking an important question Who is the romance heroine and what does she want To find the answer Kambl explores how heroines in ten novels reject societal labels and instead remake themselves on their own terms with their own agency Using a truly intersectional approach Kambl combines gender and sexuality Marxism critical race theory and literary criticism to survey various aspects of heroines identities such as sexuality gender work citizenship and race Ideal for readers interested in gender studies and literary criticism Creating Identity highlights a genre in which heroines do not accept that independence and strong loving relationships are mutually exclusive but instead demand both echoing the call from the very readers who have made this genre so popular
