Nemesis Harry Hole Series 4:

Does the Internet Have an Unconscious? Clint Burnham, 2018-05-31 Does the Internet Have an Unconscious is both an introduction to the work of Slavoj Žižek and an investigation into how his work can be used to think about the digital present. Clint Burnham uniquely combines the German idealism, Lacanian psychoanalysis and Marxist materialism found in Žižek's thought to understand how the Internet, social and new media and digital cultural forms work in our lives and how their failure to work structures our pathologies and fantasies. He suggests that our failure to properly understand the digital is due to our lack of recognition of its political, aesthetic and psychosexual elements. Mixing autobiographical passages with critical analysis, Burnham situates a Žižekian theory of digital culture in the lived human body. Twenty-First-Century Popular Fiction Bernice M. Murphy, 2017-12-04 This groundbreaking collection provides students with a timely and accessible overview of current trends within contemporary popular fiction. The Round Britain Quiz Book Paul Bajoria, 2019-10-17 The nerdiest and longest running quiz around The Spectator. Have you got what it takes to tackle Radio 4's most fiendish quiz? Question: A fictional criminal psychologist, a former Conservative minister and the eponymous protagonist of a Peter Hedges novel might all serve on the board alongside some big cheeses. Can you explain? The Round Britain Quiz is the oldest broadcast quiz anywhere in the world. Created in 1947, it has built and maintained a cult following from across the generations. Each series sees six teams from around the UK competing against each other to solve a series of seriously cryptic clues, with a chairman giving a steer on how to get to the answer. Compiled by long-serving series producer Paul Bajoria and with an introduction from the Chairman, BBC journalist Tom Sutcliffe, The Round Britain Quiz Book features 250 of the toughest and most challenging questions from the last 70 years, as well as many new and exclusive conundrums drawing on unpredictable fields of knowledge to truly test the nation. Answer: They might all be found on a cheeseboard as accompaniments to the cheese. The psychologist referred to is Fitz in the TV series Cracker; the former MP is Eric Pickles and Gilbert Grape is Peter Hedges' creation. The Story of American Golf Herbert Warren Wind, 2016-01-26 The classic history of golf in America, beginning with the first clubs to arrive on the coast from golf's most respected and authoritative writer, Golf magazine. Widely regarded as the definitive account of America's love affair with the world's greatest game, this magisterial volume is Herbert Warren Wind's masterpiece. From John Reid, the expatriate Scotsman who imported a set of clubs and balls from St Andrews in 1888 and built a three-hole course on a cow pasture in Yonkers, New York, to Alan Shepard's six iron shot on the surface of the moon, The Story of American Golf documents the iconic moments in the sport's first century in the United States. Wind captures legendary players including C.B. MacDonald, Bobby Jones, Byron Nelson, Babe Didrikson Zaharias, Ben Hogan and Jack Nicklaus in all their glory and expertly analyzes the developments in style, equipment and technique that created the modern game. Encyclopedic in scope and intimate in detail, The Story of American Golf is both a fitting tribute to the beautiful and fickle game that inspired a national obsession and a testament to Herbert Warren Wind's
