The Curriculum of Everything: Understanding education and curriculum José Augusto Pacheco, 2023-11-06 The Curriculum of Everything advances as the eternal future in which artificial intelligence surpasses the human capacity to do but not that of understanding and feeling Now even the father of Artificial Intelligence worries even those bedrocks of being understanding and feeling may be at risk Pacheco reminds us that curriculum study is a normative question now necessarily with its technological dimension Then in a stunningly synoptic sentence that students could usefully study all semester he summarizes the curriculum as a socially culturally ideologically politically and economically constructed practice is a formal and informal dispositive of interwoven relationships between knowledge power and technology Penetrated we become impregnated with the structures of software as Pacheco appreciates Technological devices are powerful instruments of subjectivity production moving the subject into predefined ways of knowing Old fashioned rhetoric alright but insightfully implying we need to return to the past when were still sort of human before we were seduced by supranational citizenship in the software state before we became submerged in the curriculum of everything Step back from the brink Pacheco has Let us join him William F Pinar Preface Misinformation Studies and Higher Education in the Postdigital Era Paul Cook, 2024-12-15 In Misinformation Studies and Higher Education in the Postdigital Era Beyond Fake News Paul Cook argues that the epistemological complexity of the postdigital age demands a new metadisciplinary approach to information and media misinformation studies Cook posits that institutions of higher education can work toward regaining the public s trust and reinvigorating general education programs by developing a metadiscipline that directly addresses the problem of misinformation in all its various and dangerous forms This book outlines how such a curricular pivot may be accomplished in an age saturated with generative AI algorithmic manipulation ubiquitous networked computing and information overload coupled with the myriad challenges higher education faces from seemingly all sides Ultimately this book makes a compelling case that universities and colleges can instead harness the fragmentation caused by this perfect storm currently facing higher education so they can not only weather the crisis but also emerge stronger because of it

The New Enlightenment and the Fight to Free Knowledge Peter B. Kaufman, 2021-02-23

How do we create a universe of truthful and verifiable information available to everyone In The New Enlightenment and the Fight to Free Knowledge MIT Open Learning s Peter B Kaufman describes the powerful forces that have purposely crippled our efforts to share knowledge widely and freely Popes and their inquisitors emperors and their hangmen commissars and their secret police throughout history all have sought to stanch the free flow of information Kaufman writes of times when the Bible could not be translated you d be burned for trying when dictionaries and encyclopedias were forbidden when literature and science and history books were trashed and pulped sometimes along with their authors and when efforts to develop public television and radio networks were quashed by private industry In the 21st century the enemies of free thought have taken on new and different guises giant corporate behemoths sprawling national security agencies gutted regulatory commissions Bereft of any real moral compass or sense of social responsibility their work to surveil and control us are no less nefarious than their 16th and 18th and 20th century predecessors They are all part of what Kaufman calls the Monsterverse The New Enlightenment and the Fight to Free Knowledge maps out the opportunities to mobilize for the fight ahead of us With the Internet and other means of media production and distribution video especially at hand knowledge institutions like universities libraries museums and archives have a special responsibility now to counter misinformation disinformation and fake news and especially efforts to control the free flow of information A film and video producer and former book publisher Kaufman begins to draft a new social contract for our networked video age He draws his inspiration from those who fought tooth and nail against earlier incarnations of the Monsterverse including William Tyndale in the 16th century Denis Diderot in the 18th untold numbers of Soviet and Central and East European dissidents in the 20th many of whom paid the ultimate price Their successors Advocates of free knowledge like Aaron Swartz of free software like Richard Stallman of an enlightened public television and radio network like James Killian of a freer Internet like Tim Berners Lee of fuller rights and freedoms like Edward Snowden All have been striving to secure for us a better world marked by the right balance between state society and private gain The concluding section of the book its largest piece builds on their work drawing up a progressive agenda for how today s free thinkers can band together now to fight and win With everything shut and everyone going online The New Enlightenment and the Fight to Free Knowledge is a rousing call to action that expands the definition of what it means to be a citizen in the 21st century
