Voices of Justice and Reason Geoffrey V. Davis, 2021-10-25 Over the past fifty years transformations of great moment have taken place in South Africa Apartheid and the subsequent transition to a democratic non racial society in particular have exercised a profound effect on the practice of literature This study traces the development of literature under apartheid then seeks to identify the ways in which writers and theatre practitioners are now facing the challenges of a new social order The main focus is on the work of black writers prime among them Matsemela Manaka Mtutuzeli Matshoba and Richard Rive who as politically committed members of the oppressed majority bore witness to the black experience through their writing Despite the draconian censorship system they were able to address the social problems caused by racial discrimination in all areas of life particularly through forced removals the migrant labour system and the creation of the homelands Their writing may be read both as a comprehensive record of everyday life under apartheid and as an alternative cultural history of South Africa Particular attention is paid to theatre as a barometer of social change in South Africa The concluding chapters consider how in the current period of transition writers and arts institutions have set about reassessing their priorities redefining their function and seeking new aesthetic directions in taking up the challenge of imagining a new society

Why Comrades go to War Philip Roessler, Harry Verhoeven, 2017-08-01 In October 1996 a motley crew of ageing Marxists and unemployed youth coalesced to revolt against Mobutu Sese Seko president of Zaire Congo since 1965 The rebels of the AFDL marched over 1500km in seven months to crush the dictatorship heralding liberation as a second independence for Central Africa as a whole US President Bill Clinton toasted AFDL leader Laurent D sir Kabila and his regional allies having developed a unique camaraderie and personal trust on the region's battlefronts as a new generation of African leaders ushering in an African Renaissance Within months however the Pan Africanist alliance fell apart The AFDL's collapse triggered a cataclysmic fratricide between the heroes of liberation that became the deadliest conflict since the Second World War drawing in eight African countries This book draws on hundreds of interviews with protagonists from Africa and the international community to offer a novel theoretical and empirical account of Africa's Great War Bridging the gap between comparative politics and international relations it argues that the renewed outbreak of calamitous violence in August 1998 was a function of the kind of regime the AFDL was and how its leaders saw Congo the region and themselves As a Pan Africanist liberation movement the collapse of the AFDL government internally and the unravelling of regional order externally were inextricably linked

Israel on the Brink Ilan Pappé, 2025-09-18 Israel can't go on like this 7 October and Israel's subsequent invasion of Gaza laid bare the cracks in its foundations It was unveiled as a country unable to protect its citizens divided between messianic theocrats and selective liberals resented by its neighbours and losing the support of Jews worldwide While its leaders justify bombing campaigns exceeding the worst atrocities of World War 2 and a spiralling humanitarian catastrophe in the Gaza Strip Israel is becoming a pariah state Its worst enemy is not Hamas but itself Ilan Pappé paves a path out of the Jewish state rooted in restorative justice and decolonisation including the return of refugees the end of illegal settlements and building bridges with the Arab world The future can be one of reconciliation not endless war

Transforming Violent Political Movements Kevin E. Grisham, 2014-03-21 This book explores the factors that influence violent rebellious political organisations to transform into other entities such as political parties criminal organisations and terrorist organisations From the end of the Second World War until 1990 many events in the world centred on the bipolar struggle between the United States and the USSR Although there were numerous civil wars occurring during the Cold War era many of these conflicts went virtually unnoticed unless they were linked to the Cold War struggle for ideological dominance In the aftermath of the fall of the Soviet Union the number of intra state conflicts was prevalent around the globe Along with the occurrence of civil wars a variety of violent political movements also developed Examining cases from Latin America Africa Europe and Asia this book addresses how violent political movements transform during and after conflict into new types of organisations using the collective political violence transformative CPVT model The study uses a combination of pre-existing literature from the fields of sociology and political science archival research and interviews with movement members former and active conducted by the author In studying the Provisional IRA and Sinn Féin in the Spear of the Nation MK and the African National Congress ANC the Abu Sayyaf Group and the Revolutionary Armed Forces of Colombia FARC EP Transforming Violent Political Movements paints a picture of organisations that have to respond to their environments to survive This book will be of much interest to students of political violence terrorism war and conflict studies security studies and IR

Internal Frontiers Jon Soske, 2017-12-01 In this ambitious new history of the anti-apartheid struggle Jon Soske places India and the Indian diaspora at the center of the African National Congress's development of an inclusive philosophy of nationalism In so doing Soske combines intellectual political religious urban and gender history to tell a story that is global in reach while remaining grounded in the everyday materiality of life under apartheid Even as Indian independence provided black South African intellectuals with new models of conceptualizing sovereignty debates over the place of the Indian diaspora in Africa the also colonized other forced a reconsideration of the nation s internal and external boundaries In response to the traumas of Partition and the 1949 Durban Riots a group of thinkers in the ANC centered in the Indian Ocean city of Durban and led by ANC president and Nobel Peace Prize winner Albert Luthuli developed a new philosophy of nationhood that affirmed South Africa s simultaneously heterogeneous and fundamentally African character Internal Frontiers is a major contribution to postcolonial and Indian Ocean studies and charts new ways of writing about African nationalism

European Overseas Empire, 1879 - 1999 Matthew G. Stanard, 2018-05-01 A Timely Look Back at the Era That Shaped Our World Thousands of years of recorded history show that the main way in which human societies have been organized is as empires Today the evidence of recent European overseas empire s lasting effects is all around us from international frontiers and fusion cuisine to multiplying apologies for colonial misdeeds European Overseas Empire 1879 1999 A Short History explores the major events in this critical period that continue to inform and affect our world today New access to archives and a renewed interest in the most recent era of European overseas empire building and the decolonization that followed have produced a wealth of fascinating information that has recharged perennial debates and shed new light on topics previously considered settled At the same time current events are once again beginning to echo the past bringing historical perspective into the spotlight to guide our actions going forward This book examines our collective past providing new insight and fresh perspectives as it Traces current events to their roots in the European overseas imperialism of the 19th and 20th centuries Challenges the notion of political cultural social and economic exchanges of the era as being primarily Europe outward Examines the complexity and contingency of colonial rule and the range of outcomes for the various territories involved Explores the power dynamics of overseas empires and their legacies that continue to shape the world today

Africa and the West: A Documentary History William H. Worger, Nancy L. Clark, Edward A. Alpers, 2010-02-02 Africa and the West presents a fascinating array of primary sources to engage readers in the history of Africa s long and troubled relationship with the West Many of the sources have not previously appeared in print or in books readily available to students Volume 1 covers two major topics the Atlantic slave trade and the European conquest It details the beginnings of the slave trade slavery as a business the experiences of slaves and the effect of abolitionism on the trade using such documents as a letter from a sixteenth century African king to the king of Portugal calling for a more regulated slave trade and the nineteenth century testimony of a South African slave accused of treason The volume also covers the early nineteenth century considerations of the costs and benefits of colonization the development of conquest as the century progressed with special attention to technology legislation empire religion racism and violence through such unusual documents as Cecil Rhodes s will and a chart of the costs of African animals exported to Western zoos

Nelson Mandela

Judith Pinkerton Josephson, 2009-01-01 Tells the life story of Nelson Mandela who fought for human rights endured years in prison and became the President of South Africa The Rise And Fall Of Apartheid David Welsh, 2010-11-22 On his way into Parliament on 2 February 1990 FW de Klerk turned to his wife Marike and said referring to his forthcoming speech South Africa will never be the same again after this Did white South Africa crack or did its leadership yield sufficiently and just in time to avert a revolution The transformation has been called a miracle belying gloomy predictions of race war in which the white minority went into a laager and fought to the last drop of blood Why did it happen Professor Welsh views the topic against the backdrop of a long history of conflict spanning apartheid's rise and demise and the liberation movement's suppression and subsequent resurrection His view is that the movement away from apartheid to majority rule would have taken far longer and been much bloodier were it not for the changes undergone by Afrikaner nationalism itself There were turning points such as the Soweto uprising of 1976 but few believed that the transition from white domination to inclusive democracy would occur as soon and as relatively peacefully as it did In effect however a multitude of different factors led the ANC and the National Party to see that neither side could win the conflict on its own terms Utterly dissimilar in background culture beliefs and political style Nelson Mandela and FW de Klerk were an unlikely pair of liberators But both soon recognised that they were dependent on each other to steer the transformation process through to its conclusion
