Instagram Black Friday Near Me:

Postfeminism, Postrace and Digital Politics in Asian American Food Blogs Tisha Dejmanee, 2022-12-26 This book examines how Asian American women bloggers challenge dominant race and gender discourses through the practice of food blogging Asian American food blogs which situate recipes and food photography within the personal narratives and domestic spaces of Asian American women offer unique insights into the ways that hegemonic race and gender discourses are negotiated in quotidian life The genre's focus on food provides a particularly rich backdrop for this study as it necessarily implicates family histories gendered labour domestic spaces and the power dynamics of consumption These intimate digital texts therefore provide unique insights into the ways that postfeminist and postrace discourses are encountered in the individual's mundane experiences The author engages a critical cultural analysis of food blogs narratives images communities and platforms expressions of post race and feminism discourses are constrained by the commercial logics of this digital culture The author argues that while Asian American food blogs rarely present a sustained challenge to hegemonic identity representation the processes of reproduction and rupture that define this blogosphere consistently reveal the collective desire to push back against the limits of post identities This is a unique and fascinating study which is ideal reading for students and scholars of gender studies media studies cultural studies and sociology

Mediating Sustainability in the Consumer Society Astrid Skjerven, Lisbeth Løvbak Berg, Liv Merete Nielsen, Dagny Stuedahl, 2024-12-30 This book sheds light on the role and impact of sustainability mediation an effective tool for political authorities and business enterprises to persuade consumers of the integrity of their actions products and services In this era of ecological and societal crises fuelled by increasing consumption sustainability has become a key buzzword and target to attain Governments around the world argue that they will meet their sustainability goals through environmental actions by enabling consumers to make better choices and expecting brands to respond accordingly At the same time consumers are overwhelmed by the messaging conveyed in sustainability marketing campaigns often featuring misleading greenwashing with political authorities organisations and business enterprises all having conflicting interests In this complex scenario mediation has become a crucial issue This book offers a critical and multidisciplinary view of sustainability mediation from experts in the fields of philosophy consumption research media studies fashion design and citizenship offering a unique holistic view Each chapter highlights different and problematic aspects of the cultural narratives being communicated for example the necessity of growth and the notion of a green economy They present current theories methods indicators and strategies used to assess and measure the relation between mediation behaviour and sustainable development This book is of interest to scholars researchers and postgraduate students in all subject fields concerned with sustainability including design visual communication fashion consumption media and journalism and sustainable development

Burgess,2020-07-27 In our hyper connected world that is changing at warp speed marketers recognize the need to shift from traditional marketing methods to a new way that can help them better navigate the unpredictable environment For traditionalists this change has posed a challenge Many have tried to incorporate new approaches into the old models they grew up with only to be frustrated with the results From the bestselling authors of The Social Employee and LinkedIn Learning course authors comes a powerful new textbook that cracks the marketing code in our hyper focused digital age The New Marketing with contributions spanning CMO trailblazers to martech disruptors behavioral economics luminaries at Yale to leading marketing thinkers at Kellogg and Wharton is a GPS for navigating in a digital world and moves the craft of marketing through the forces of marketing transformation We can t predict the future But our goal is to help make Masters MBA students and marketing practitioners future ready and successful Inside Black Mirror Charlie Brooker,Annabel Jones,Jason Arnopp,2018-11-20 The first official companion to the Netflix cult hit sci fi television series that s fascinated millions of fans worldwide What becomes of humanity when it s fed into the jaws of a hungry new digital machine Discover the world of Black Mirror in this immersive illustrated oral history This first official book logs the entire Black Mirror journey from its origins in creator Charlie Brooker s mind to its current status as one of the biggest cult TV shows to emerge from the UK Alongside a collection of astonishing behind the scenes imagery and ephemera Brooker and producer Annabel Jones will detail the creative genesis inspiration and thought process behind each film for the first time while key actors directors and other creative talents relive their own involvement The Deadline Effect Christopher Cox,2021-07-08 I love deadlines I like the whooshing sound they make as they fly by So said author Douglas Adams but what if there was a way of making deadlines work for you and using them to ensure others provide you with what you want when you want it In Christopher Cox's brilliant new book he looks at the impact deadlines have on us and how we can use them to deliver the best results for all parties Social scientists have revealed that most negotiations run right up to the deadline before a deal is finally struck What they also discovered was that this deadline effect usually results in a worse deal for both parties Cox shows you how instead the deadline effect can be used to bring about success not failure The truth is that most of us think of deadlines all wrong They aren't immutable laws of nature they are a game we can play and win This book will show you the strategies different workplaces have come up with to do just that They are the businesses and individuals who are rehabilitating the deadline effect taking the urgency it provides and jettisoning all the down to the wire nonsense Based on his own experience as a magazine commissioning editor where coaxing writers to deliver on time is an art form he also embeds himself in other businesses such as a ski patrol ahead of the first day of the winter season to see how they meet deadlines that cannot be missed Above all this book is an argument to embrace the power of deadlines When time is limited people are less wasteful more focused productive and creative It's a liberating realisation excellence and timeliness are not at odds and the deadline effect can be highly effective Intersectional Identities of Christian Women in the United States Amanda

Hernandez,2024-09-15 In Intersectional Identities of Christian Women in the United States Faith Race and Feminism Amanda Hernandez explores the complex relationship between Christianity and feminism in the United States Often feminism and faith are seen as contradictory to each other Through sociological analysis that includes content analysis survey data and interviews with over forty Christian women the author argues this seeming contradiction is rooted in white supremacy Further she examines how whiteness racism and experiences of sexism shape feminist identities in religious contexts By centering the experiences of Christian women this study challenges existing narratives and calls for a more nuanced understanding of feminism and faith in the United States Black, Listed Jeffrey Boakye,2019-04-18 AFRO
