You Should Quit Reddit Jacob Desforges, 2023-02-21 In recent years countless books articles and documentaries have addressed the negative effects that social media platforms have wrought on their users and society However these former works are incomplete nearly no attention has been paid to Reddit one of the most popular websites in the world Reddit is certainly unique among social platforms but its potential for addiction and darker side of nefarious activity should absolutely not be understated Additionally nearly no actionable advice has been provided to users of these platforms The audience is told that these websites and apps are harming their mental health wasting their time and that they are addictive which would logically make the task of quitting rather difficult but then provided zero guidance on how to disconnect from them Over 200 000 users gather on Reddit s r NoSurf community to discuss reducing their internet use the forum is filled with reports of people who want to quit Reddit but find themselves psychologically compelled to return to the site over and over For moderate to heavy users of these platforms quitting is clearly not so simple You Should Quit Reddit is a paradigm shift in the genre Jacob Desforges was a Reddit user of over a decade and a self admitted Reddit addict who spent on average around three hours daily on the site Not only is this the first book investigating Reddit s flaws as a platform but it is also written from the perspective of someone who experienced firsthand the struggle that comes with quitting these addictive platforms This book therefore also provides readers with the practical advice tools and techniques needed to shatter the cycle of digital addiction enabling them to quit visiting Reddit and other time wasting websites for good so they can effectively reclaim their time to use in a more intentional manner Understanding Reddit Elliot T. Panek, 2021-12-24 This book offers a comprehensive scholarly overview of Reddit one of the most popular and least studied social platforms of the early 21st century The book inspires new ways of thinking about Reddit considering it from multiple perspectives through a historical lens as a site where identity is forged as a democracy as a community and as a news aggregator and distributor By bringing theories from computer mediated communication communication studies and sociology to bear on original large scale observational analyses of Reddit s communities this book provides a uniquely comprehensive overview of the platform s first 15 years Understanding Reddit will help us make sense of how rapidly growing communities function in an era of mass online anonymity Serving both as a primer on how social behavior on Reddit plays out and as a way of locating it within multiple theoretical traditions the book will offer important insights to scholars and students in the disciplines of communication media studies information science internet and emerging media studies and sociology Facebook Nation Newton

Other Formats on Amazon <https://amzn.to/3dG3urz> Youth Digital Health and Online Platforms Martyna Gliniecka, 2024-12-27 Youth Digital Health and Online Platforms focuses on young people's use of the digital platform Reddit for health. Drawing upon dialogism theory, the book explores how young people produce a youth-led discourse of youth digital health different from the adult-led framing represented in youth digital health research, policy, and service delivery. Peer-led discussions online remain one of the controversial forms of youth digital health associated with negative peer influence or casual teenage talk. This book argues that online peer-led dialogues support young people's agency in health and that young people can benefit from dealing with health issues with peers. The work is based on the digital ethnography of teenagers' subreddits on Reddit and utilises a theoretical framework of dialogism, a linguistic-based theory originated by an early 20th-century Russian philosopher Mikhail Bakhtin. The book introduces the concept of dialogical youth-led youth digital health discourse formed in the peer-led space of Reddit. This youth-led discourse celebrates equality and diversity amongst people, meanings, and opinions. It is constructed around three relational elements: socio-material affordances, creative practices, and a plurality of youth voices. Reddit's pseudonymous, anti-authoritarian and egalitarian nature supports the emergence of this youth-led discourse. The book can interest scholars and lecturers in childhood and youth studies, Internet studies, and youth health studies. Professionals such as policymakers, service designers, deliverers, online safety educators, and global youth and health agencies can use evidence-based insights in their work with young people. We Are the Nerds Christine Lagorio-Chafkin, 2018-10-02 A gripping read. Feminist Connections Katherine Fredlund, Kerri Hauman, Jessica Ouellette, 2020-09-29 Highlights feminist rhetorical practices that disrupt and surpass boundaries of time and space In 1917 Alice Paul and other suffragists famously picketed in front of the White House while holding banners with short pithy sayings such as Mr President How long must women wait for Liberty Their juxtaposition of this short phrase with the image of the White House a symbol of liberty and justice relies on the same rhetorical tactics as memes a genre contemporary feminists use frequently to make arguments about reproductive rights Black Lives Matter sex positivity and more Many such connections between feminists of different spaces places and eras have yet to be considered let alone understood Feminist Connections Rhetoric and Activism across Time Space and Place reconsiders feminist rhetorical strategies as linked intergenerational and surprisingly consistent despite the emergence of new forms of media and intersectional considerations Contributors to this volume highlight continuities in feminist rhetorical practices that are often invisible to scholars obscured by time new media and wildly different cultural political and social contexts Thus this collection takes a nonchronological approach to the study of feminist rhetoric grouping chapters by rhetorical practice rather than time content or choice of media By connecting historical contemporary and future trajectories this collection develops three feminist rhetorical frameworks revisionary rhetorics circulatory rhetorics and response rhetorics A theorization of these frameworks explains how feminist rhetorical practices past and present rely on similar but diverse methods to create change and fight oppression Identifying these strategies not only helps us rethink feminist rhetoric from an academic perspective but also allows us to enact feminist activist rhetorics beyond the academy during a time in which feminist scholarship cannot afford to remain behind its hallowed yet insular walls
