Reckless Love: An Inspirational Romance Novel Matt Kingsley, Emma stood on the creaking porch of her family's ancestral home her gaze lingering on the rolling green hills of the English countryside The scent of fresh rain mingled with the earthy aroma of the garden a sensory reminder of her childhood It was here among these hills that she'd grown up her life a tapestry of family traditions and unspoken expectations The house with its ivy clad walls and weathered stones had been a witness to generations of joy and sorrow Emma felt the weight of her lineage an invisible mantle that had been passed down through the years Her family known for their unwavering principles and societal standing had always been her guiding compass But beneath the composed surface Emma harboured a heartache a secret she'd kept even from those closest to her She had returned home after years abroad her academic pursuits and a teaching career taking her far from these familiar surroundings Yet the pull of home had been irresistible a call to return to her roots to the place that held her most cherished and painful memories As she walked through the house her fingers trailed along the spines of dusty books and family portraits that adorned the walls Each step was a journey through time a reminder of the legacy she was expected to uphold Her parents both eminent figures in their fields had always envisioned a certain path for her a path of academic excellence and a marriage that would align with their social standing However Emma's heart yearned for something different She sought a love that was passionate and all consuming a connection that transcended societal norms and expectations But such desires were often whispered in the quiet of the night never to be voiced in the light of day

The Black Moth A Romance of the XVIIIth Century Georgette Heyer
Clad in his customary black and silver with raven hair unpowdered and elaborately dressed diamonds on his fingers and in his cravat Hugh Tracy Clare Belmanoir Duke of Andover sat at the escritoire in the library of his town house writing. He wore no rouge on his face the almost unnatural pallor of which seemed designedly enhanced by a patch set beneath his right eye. Brows and lashes were black the former slanting slightly up at the corners but his narrow heavy lidded eyes were green and strangely piercing. The thin lips curled a little sneering as one dead white hand travelled to and fro across the paper but it seems that the Fair Lady has a Brother who finding Me Enamoured threw down the Gauntlet I soundly whipt the presumptuous Child and so the Affair ends. Now as you My dear Frank also took some Interest in the Lady I write for the Express Purpose of informing You that at my Hands she has received no Hurt nor is not like to This I in part tell You that You shall not imagine Yr self in Honor bound again to call Me out which Purpose an I mistake not I yesterday read in Yr Eyes I should be Exceeding loth to meet You in a Second Time when I should consider it my Duty to teach You an even severer Lesson than Before This I am not Wishful of doing for the Liking I bear You So in all Friendship believe me Frank Your most Obedient Humble DEVIL
