Panyard, 2022-06-21 Christine M Panyard thought she was studying Michelangelo and Renaissance art but she was actually being moved towards God The gothic cathedral is a metaphor for spiritual development in Stalking Michelangelo Finding God Her story began outside the church where she was for many years It takes the reader on a journey around and through the cathedral to the altar much as she moved from being a lapsed Catholic to formation as a Secular Discalced Carmelite Christine became an author and award winning photographer on her way to God The Interior Journey Toward God: Reflections from Saint Teresa of Ávila John Paul Thomas, The Interior Journey Toward God Reflections from Saint Teresa of Ávila attempts to take what many believe is

Saint Teresa of Avila's greatest work The Interior Castle and break it down into successive lessons, reflections, and prayers. Each lesson is drawn from St. Teresa's writings and seeks not only to explain each particular teaching concisely but also to help you, the reader, to apply the content to your own life. This book can be used as a daily meditation book by which you can slowly ponder the teachings of Saint Teresa as she takes us through the various dwelling places of the soul. This book can also be used as a companion to the reading of Saint Teresa's original spiritual masterpiece Interior Castle. I began to think of the soul as if it were a castle made of a single diamond or of very clear crystal in which there are many rooms just as in Heaven there are many dwelling places. Interior Castle, Part I, Chapter 2: Saint Teresa of Jesus, you were a daughter of the Church, a humble servant of God, a reformer, a mystic, and a great beacon of light for all. Please pray for me as I prayerfully reflect upon the lessons you have taught. Through your intercession, may I discover the presence of God Who dwells within me, journeying ever deeper to the center of my soul where the Great King resides. Saint Teresa of Jesus, pray for us. Jesus, I trust in You. For more information, you can view this book online for free from our website at www.mycatholiclife.com. The Catholic Periodical and Literature Index, 2008.

Catechetical Sessions for the Catechumenate Jessica Cole, Elisa St. Clair, Kyle S. Turner, 2024-07-29. The period of the catechumenate is focused on helping new disciples understand the doctrines and precepts of the Church in a way that flows from the liturgy. This period imbues catechumens with a spirit of prayer and service as catechists guide them to a deeper relationship with Christ. Catechetical Sessions for the Catechumenate provides models and suggestions for leading catechumens through the many aspects of the Catholic faith, including fifty prayerful and theologically sound sessions to use when catechizing the unbaptized and the uncatechized. The sessions are organized in five categories: Beliefs, Catholic Living, Holy People, Prayer and Liturgy, and Sacraments, allowing the catechist to integrate doctrinal teachings into sessions in a prayerful and formative way that reflects the vision of the Order of Christian Initiation of Adults. This material can also be adapted to your parish's unique needs, including to a year-round catechumenate model. The sessions include theological backgrounds for each session topic, engaging and interactive catechetical scripts, liturgical recommendations for the Celebrations of the Word, opportunities for catechumens to live their faith, summary statements for wrapping up each session, an organizational chart for scheduling the sessions according to the liturgical year. Also included in this book is an organizational chart for scheduling the sessions according to the liturgical year. With a helpful overview of the period of the catechumenate and guidance for forming catechumens, this resource will help catechists and initiation team members share their faith, teach Catholic beliefs, and help catechumens live their developing faith as disciples of Christ.

Uncommon Prayer Michael Plekon, 2016-09-15 In Uncommon Prayer Prayer in Everyday Experience Michael Plekon wants to change our minds on what constitutes prayer In doing so he makes a theological claim that commonplace aspects of the Christian life are best understood as prayer whereby encouraging us to see that everyday life carries religious import prayer and the religious life are not restricted to special places and times but are open to all believers at all times Plekon examines the works of diverse authors including many who have challenged the status quo of institutional churches He asks us to listen to what poets writers activists and others tell us about how they pray at work and at home with colleagues family and friends in all the experiences of life from joy to suffering sadness to hope Among them are Sarah Coakley Rowan Williams Heather Havrilesky Sara Miles Thomas Merton Mary Oliver Christian Wiman Mary Karr Barbara Brown Taylor Dorothy Day Maria Skobtsova Paul Evdokimov Seraphim of Sarov and Richard Rohr

Plekon argues that prayer encompasses a much wider variety of activity than formal and liturgical prayers and that by recognizing such aspects of prayer the believer is made more receptive to transformative aspects of prayerful attitudes
