Apps Gerard Goggin, 2021-05-20 Since the rise of the smartphone apps have become entrenched in billions of users daily lives Accessible across phones and tablets watches and wearables connected cars sensors and cities they are an inescapable feature of our current culture In this book Gerard Goggin provides a comprehensive and authoritative guide to the development of apps as a digital media technology Covering the technological social cultural and policy dynamics of apps Goggin ultimately considers what a post app world might look like He argues that apps represent a pivotal moment in the development of digital media acting as a hinge between the visions and realities of the mobile cyber and online societies envisaged since the late 1980s and the imaginaries and materialities of the digital societies that emerged from 2010 Apps offer frames construct tools and constitute small worlds for users to reorient themselves in digital media settings This fascinating book will reframe the conversation about the software that underwrites our digital worlds It is essential reading for students and scholars of media and communication as well as for anyone interested in this ubiquitous technology iPhoneS X Android CG, 2020-07-29

Apps Connected Histories Eva Pfanzelter, Dirk Rupnow, Éva Kovács, Marianne Windsperger, 2024-09-23 The World Wide Web WWW and digitisation have become important sites and tools for the history of the Holocaust and its commemoration Today some memory institutions use the Internet at a high professional level as a venue for self presentation and as a forum for the discussion of Holocaust related topics for potentially international transcultural and interdisciplinary user groups At the same time it is not always the established institutions that utilise the technical possibilities and potential of the Internet to the maximum Creative and sometimes controversial new forms of storytelling of the Holocaust or more traditional ways of remembering the genocide presented in a new way with digital media often come from people or groups who are not in the realm of influence of the large memorial sites museums and archives Such private stagings have experienced a particular upswing since the boom of social media This democratisation of Holocaust memory and history is crucial though it is as yet undecided how much it will ultimately reinforce old structures and cultural regional or other inequalities or reinvent them The Digital space as an arbitrary and limitless archive for the mediation of the Holocaust spanning from Russia to Brazil is at the centre of the essays collected in this volume This space is also considered as a forum for negotiation a meeting place and a battleground for generations and stories and as such offers the opportunity to reconsider the transgenerational transmission of trauma family histories and communication Here it becomes evident there are new societal intentions and decision making structures that exceed the capabilities of traditional mass media and thrive on the participation of a broad public      TikTok Ban Survival Guide
