Decided Return Migration Aida Ibričević,2024-06-04 This open access book creates conceptual links between political emotions citizenship home and belonging The book describes that in the case of decided return and reintegration to a post conflict society and a fragmented state like Bosnia and Herzegovina the returnees do not conceptualize the emotional dimension of their BiH citizenship as home and belonging as this citizenship does not make them feel safe and secure Instead feeling at home is found in family place and time while belonging is categorized as ethnic religious relational landscape linguistic and economic The emotional dimension of the home state citizenship is constituted through a wide spectrum of emotions ranging from anger frustration fear guilt shame disappointment nostalgia

powerlessness to patriotic love pride defiance joy happiness and hope This book provides a valuable resource to students and scholars of migration and diaspora studies as well as political scientists human geographers and anthropologists
