Petersburg Julie A. Buckler, 2018-06-05 Pushkin's palaces or Dostoevsky's slums Many a modern day visitor to St Petersburg has one or more likely both of these images in mind when setting foot in this stage set like setting for some of the world's most treasured literary masterpieces What they overlook is the vast uncharted territory in between In Mapping St Petersburg Julie Buckler traces the evolution of Russia's onetime capital from a conceptual hierarchy to a living cultural system a topography expressed not only by the city's physical structures but also by the literary texts that have helped create it By favoring noncanonical works and underdescribed spaces Buckler seeks to revise the literary monumentalization of St Petersburg with Pushkin and Dostoevsky representing two traditional albeit opposing perspectives to offer an off center view of a richer less familiar urban landscape She views this grand city the product of Peter the Great's ambitious vision not only as a geographical entity but also as a network of genres that carries historical and cultural meaning We discover the busy messy middle ground of this hybrid city through an intricate web of descriptions in literary works nonfiction writings such as sketches feuilletons memoirs letters essays criticism and urban legends lore songs and social practices all of which add character and depth to this refurbished imperial city Heaven and Earth Are Not Humane Franklin Perkins, 2014-05-23

That bad things happen to good people was as true in early China as it is today Franklin Perkins uses this observation as the thread by which to trace the effort by Chinese thinkers of the Warring States Period c 475-221 BCE a time of great conflict and division to seek reconciliation between humankind and the world Perkins provides rich new readings of classical Chinese texts and reflects on their significance for Western philosophical discourse Role Transitions Vernon L. Allen, Evert van de Vliert, 2012-12-06 The concept of role transition refers to a wide range of experiences found in life job change unemployment divorce entering or leaving prison retirement immigration Gastarbeiten becoming a parent and so on Such transitions often produce strain and hence a variety of problems for the transiting individual occupants of complementary social positions and other members of one's social group and community In spite of the diversity of role transitions that occur however it is important also to realize that many basic psychological processes can be discerned in ostensibly different instances Research on role transitions has been dispersed across many different subdisci of the social sciences the problem can be investigated from several points of plines view and levels of analysis As modern societies become ever more complex role transitions can be expected to increase in number and diversity with a concomitant increase in detrimental consequences for the individual and society Hence for rea sons of both theory and practice improved conceptual models and new empirical data are needed The chapters in this book are the outcome of a N A T O symposium convened for the purpose of discussing aspects of role transitions from international and inter disciplinary perspectives The meeting was designed to be a working conference to facilitate as much intellectual exchange and debate among participants as possible Learning in the Field Gretchen B. Rossman, Sharon F. Rallis, 2012 The popular text that helped readers better understand and practice qualitative research has been completely updated and revised To help readers better visualize and grasp the concepts issues and complexities of qualitative inquiry the authors introduce each chapter with discussions among three characters students whose research projects demonstrate the challenges and excitement of qualitative research Woven into the chapters and the characters stories are three themes that make up the tapestry of qualitative research First research is a learning process Second research can and should be useful Finally a researcher needs to have a clear vision of the audience and purpose of a study

Resources in Education , 1986 The Sense of Space David Morris, 2012-02-01 The Sense of Space brings together space and body to show that space is a plastic environment charged with meaning that reflects the distinctive character of human embodiment in the full range of its moving perceptual emotional expressive developmental and social capacities Drawing on the philosophies of Merleau Ponty and Bergson as well as contemporary psychology to develop a renewed account of the moving perceiving body the book suggests that our sense of space ultimately reflects our ethical relations to other people and to the places we inhabit Heidegger's Volk James Phillips, 2005 Heidegger s engagement and disillusionment with National Socialism can both be properly seen to rest on the notion of the people that he takes over from traditional German nationalism and elaborates in his philosophical critique of the modern subject The youth elite football players Thomas Rostgaard Andersen, Morten B. Randers, James Malone, 2024-04-01 Technics and Time, 2 Bernard Stiegler, 1998 Technics and Time 2 Disorientation continues Stiegler s interrogation of prosthetic and ortho thetic memory in light of the crisis that arises when speed and delay are irreconcilable the crisis of human being itself Printing the Grand Manner Louis Marchesano, Christian Michel, Getty Research Institute, 2010 By exploring the intense interaction between painting and printmaking between art theory and unbridled artistic ambition Printing the Grand Manner breaks new ground in its analysis of both the reproductive prints and Le Brun s original compositions Book Jacket Community Engagement, Organization, and Development for Public Health Practice Frederick Murphy, 2012-08-06 Print CourseSmart Space, Time and Culture David Carr, Chan-Fai Cheung, 2012-11-03 Interculturality has been one of key concepts in phenomenological literature It seeks to clarify the philosophical basis for intercultural exchange within the horizon of our life world The essays in this volume focus on the themes around space time and culture from the perspectives of Chinese and Western phenomenologists Though the discussions begin with classical phenomenological texts in Husserl Heidegger or Merleau Ponty they extend to the problems of Daoism and Buddhism as well as to sociology and analytic philosophy The collection of this volume is a fruitful result of inter cultural exchange of phenomenology
