

Reading Comprehension

Read the short passage and answer the questions.

The Dog and the Shadow

It happened that a Dog had got a piece of meat and was carrying it home in his mouth to eat it in peace. Now on his way home, he had to cross a plank lying across a running brook. As he crossed, he looked down and saw his own shadow reflected in the water beneath. Thinking it was another dog with another piece of meat, he made up his mind to have that also. So he made a snap at the shadow in the water, but as he opened his mouth the piece of meat fell out, dropped into the water and was never seen more.

1. What animal was crossing a board?

2. What did the dog have in his mouth?

3. What did the dog see in the running brook?

4. What is the moral of the story?

The Cognitive Foundations of Reading and Its Acquisition Wesley A. Hoover, William E.

Tunmer, 2020-06-09 This book serves as a succinct resource on the cognitive requirements of reading It provides a coherent overall view of reading and learning to read and does so in a relatively sparse fashion that supports retention The initial sections of the book describe the cognitive structure of reading and the cognitive foundation upon which that structure is built This is followed by discussions of how an understanding of these cognitive requirements can be used in practice with standards assessments curriculum and instruction to advance the teaching of reading and the delivery of interventions for students who encounter difficulties along the way The book focuses on reading in English as its exemplar but shows how its framework can be adapted to understand the broad cognitive requirements for reading and learning to read in any phonologically based orthography It provides a way for reading professionals to think about reading and its development and gives them mechanisms that coupled with such understanding will help them link what children must know to become strong readers to what teaching can best provide through the competent use of available tools In this way the book will help reading professionals be both efficient and effective in what they provide all their students and be much better equipped to support those students who struggle to learn to read
