Mothers And Daughters Complicated Connections Across Cultures:

Mothers and Daughters Alice H. Deakins, Rebecca Bryant Lockridge, Helen M. Sterk, 2012-06-21 Family stories of the ties between mothers and daughters form the foundation of Mothers and Daughters Complicated Connections Across Cultures Nationally and internationally known feminist scholars frame analyze and explore mother daughter bonds in this collection of essays Cultures from around the world are mined for insights which reveal historical generational ethnic political religious and social class differences This book focuses on the tenacity of the connection between mothers and daughters impediments to a strong connection and practices of good communication Mothers and Daughters will interest those studying communication women s studies psychology sociology anthropology counseling and cultural studies

Maternal Connections: Kandee Kosior, Joan Garvan, 2022-09-15 This is a wonderful and insightful collection of stories and reflections of mothers on the connection with their own mother after becoming a mother themselves The chapters are primarily autobiographical and are told through a range of lens be it a graphic chapter or the more literary An author outlines Anishinaabeg ceremonial practices that honour and represent maternal connections and others demonstrate how art and craft can both assist in working through and carry forward maternal stories Two further pieces use a combination of literary critique feminist theory and post Freudian psychoanalysis to interpret varied texts and another highlights findings from a series of interviews with women reflecting on the attributes and practices they will carry forward or discard from their experience of being mothered

Contemporary Indian English Literature Cecile Sandten, Indrani Karmakar, Oliver von Knebel Doeberitz, 2024-02-12 Contemporary Indian English Literature focuses on the recent history of Indian literature in English since the publication of Salman Rushdie s novel Midnight s Children 1981 a watershed moment for Indian writing in English in the global literary landscape The chapters in this volume consider a wide range of poets novelists short fiction writers and dramatists who have notably contributed to the proliferation of Indian literature in English from the late 20th century to the present The volume provides an introduction to current developments in Indian English literature and explains general ideas as well as the specific features and styles of selected writers from this wide spectrum It addresses students working in this field at university level and includes thorough reading lists and study questions to encourage students to read reflect on and write about Indian English literature critically

Mothering Rhetorics Lynn O'Brien Hallstein, 2020-03-03 Once only a topic among women in the private sphere motherhood and mothering have become important intellectual topics across academic disciplines Even so no book has yet devoted a sustained look at how exploring mothering rhetorics the rhetorics of reproduction rhetorics about the reproductive function of women mothers and reproducing rhetorics the rhetorical reproduction of ideological systems and logics of contemporary culture expand our understanding of mothering motherhood communication and gender Mothering Rhetorics begins to fill this gap for scholars and teachers interested in the study of mothering rhetorics in their historical and contemporary permutations The contributions explore the racialized rhetorical contexts of maternity how fixing food is thought to fix families while also regulating maternal activities and identity how Black female breastfeeding activists resisted the exploitation of African American mothers in Detroit how women in pink collar occupations both adhere to and challenge maternity leave discourses by rhetorically positioning their leaves as time off and disability identifying verbal and nonverbal shaming practices related to unwed motherhood during the mid twentieth century and redefining alternative postpartum placenta practices This book was originally published as a special issue of Women's Studies in Communication The SAGE Handbook of Family Communication Lynn H. Turner, Richard West, 2014-02-18 A thorough exploration of the critical topics and issues facing family communication researchers today The Sage Handbook of Family Communication provides a comprehensive examination of family communication theory and research Chapters by leading scholars in family communication expand the definition of family address recent shifts in culture and cover important new topics including families in crisis families and governmental policies social media and extended families The combination of groundbreaking theories research methods and reviews of foundational and emerging research in family communication make this an invaluable resource that explores the critical topics and issues facing family communication researchers today Narrative Performances of Mothering in South Asian Diasporic Fiction Sarah Knor, 2022-12-30 Examining a range of South Asian Anglophone diasporic fiction and poetry this monograph opens a new dialogue between diaspora studies and gender studies It shows how discourses of diaspora benefit from re-examining their own critical relation to concepts of the maternal and the motherland Rather than considering maternity as a fixed or naturally given category it challenges essentialist conceptions and explores mothering as a performative practice which actively produces discursive meaning This innovative approach also involves an investigation of central metaphors in nationalist and diasporic rhetorics bringing critical attention to the strategies they employ and the unique aesthetic forms they produce The Routledge Encyclopedia of Indian Writing in English Manju Jaidka, Tej N. Dhar, 2023-09-29 Today Indian writing in English is a field of study that cannot be overlooked Whereas at the turn of the 20th century writers from India who chose to write in English were either unheeded or underrated with time the literary world has been forced to recognize and accept their contribution to the corpus of world literatures in English Showcasing the burgeoning field of Indian English writing this encyclopedia documents the poets novelists essayists and dramatists of Indian origin since the pre-independence era and their dedicated works Written by internationally recognized scholars this comprehensive reference book explores the history and development of Indian writers their major contributions and the critical reception accorded to them The Routledge Encyclopedia of Indian Writing in English will be a valuable resource to students teachers and academics navigating the vast area of contemporary world literature International Handbook of Media Literacy Education Belinha S. De Abreu, Paul Mihailidis, Alice Y.L. Lee, Jad Melki, Julian McDougall, 2017-04-21 At the forefront in its field this Handbook examines the theoretical conceptual pedagogical and methodological development of media literacy education and research around the world Building on traditional media literacy frameworks in critical analysis evaluation and assessment it incorporates new literacies emerging around connective technologies mobile platforms and social networks A global perspective rather than a Western centric point of view is explicitly highlighted with contributors from all continents to show the empirical research being done at the intersection of media education and engagement in daily life Structured around five themes Educational Interventions Safeguarding Data and Online Privacy Engagement in Civic Life Media Creativity and Production Digital Media Literacy the volume as a whole emphasizes the competencies needed to engage in meaningful participation in digital culture

On (Writing) Families Jonathan Wyatt, 2014-07-03 Who are we with and without families How do we relate as children to our parents as parents to our children How are parent child relationships and familial relationships in general made and not maintained Informed by narrative performance studies poststructuralism critical theory and queer theory contributors to this collection use autoethnography a method that uses the personal to examine the cultural to interrogate these questions The essays write about around issues of interpersonal distance and closeness gratitude and disdain courage and fear doubt and certainty openness and secrecy remembering and forgetting accountability and forgiveness life and death Throughout family relationships are framed as relationships that inspire and inform bind and scar relationships replete with presence and absence love and loss An essential text for anyone interested in autoethnography personal narrative identity relationships and family communication

Maternal Fictions Indrani Karmakar, 2022-05-19 This book constitutes a feminist literary analysis of motherhood as presented in selected Indian women s fictions across a diverse range of geographical linguistic class and caste contexts Situated at the crossroads of motherhood studies and literary studies this book offers a rigorous examination of the prosody and politics of motherhood in this corpus In its five thematically focused chapters the book scrutinises in depth such key concerns as maternal ambivalence maternal agency and caste mother daughter relationships motherhood and diaspora and non biological motherhood It attempts to understand the literary ramifications of these issues in order to identify the ways in which fiction writers reconceive of the notion of motherhood and maternal identities from and against multiple perspectives Another pressing concern is whether these Indian women writers visions furnish readers with any different understandings of motherhood as compared to dominant Western feminist discourses Maternal Fictions advances feminist literary criticism in the specific area of Indian women s writing and the overarching areas of motherhood and literature by acting as a launchpad into a complex constellation of ideas concerning motherhood The fictional universe is at once ambivalent diverse contingent grounded in a specific location and yet well placed to converse with discourses emanating from other times and places
