Museum as Process Raymond Silverman, 2014-09-19 The museum has become a vital strategic space for negotiating ownership of and access to knowledges produced in local settings. Museum as Process presents community engaged culture work of a group of scholars whose collaborative projects consider the social spaces between the museum and community and offer new ways of addressing the challenges of bridging the local and the global. Museum as Process explores a variety of strategies for engaging source communities in the process of translation and the collaborative mediation of cultural knowledges. Scholars from around the world reflect upon their work with specific communities in different parts of the world: Australia, Canada, Ghana, Great Britain, New Zealand, Papua New Guinea, Philippines, South Africa, Taiwan, and the United States. Each global case study provides significant insights into what happens to knowledge as it moves back and forth between source communities and global sites, especially the museum. Museum as Process is an important contribution to understanding the relationships between museums and source communities and the flow of cultural knowledge.

Culture and International Law Hikmahanto Juwana, Jeffrey Thomas, Mohd Hazmi, Mohd Rusli, Dhiana Puspitawati, 2019-09-03 In this era of globalization, International Law plays a significant role in facing rapid development of various legal issues. Cultural preservation has emerged as an important legal issue that should be considered by States. This book consists of academic papers presented and discussed during the 9th International Conference of the Centre of International Law Studies (CILS) Conference held in Malang, Indonesia, 2-3 October 2018. The title of the book represents the major theme of the conference: Culture and International Law. It is argued that along with globalization, cultural preservation is slowly ignored by States. Various papers presented in the book cover five topics: cultural heritage, cultural rights, culture and economic activity, culture and armed conflict, and a general topic. The authors of the papers are outstanding academics from various countries: Lithuania, United States of America, Australia, Thailand, and Indonesia. The conference was organized by Universitas Indonesia in collaboration with Brawijaya University. This book aims to give a useful contribution to the existing literature on International Law, specifically focussing on cultural issues from the perspective of cultural heritage and rights, economic as well as armed conflict.

Frederick Kiesler Shirley Haines-Cooke, 2009 The material for this book has been taken from the 2006 thesis Frederick Kiesler TM s Art of This Century in New York 1942 1947 in the Context of the Twentieth Century Art Museum The prime objective was to establish why so few people remember Art of This Century which Kiesler designed for Peggy Guggenheim in 1942 and she ruthlessly closed in 1947 A second aim was to investigate why there has been so research carried out on the Gallery when it was acknowledged as a work of art in its own right at the time of opening Indeed in 2004 Thomas Krens the Guggenheim Foundation TM s director expressed concern that due to the lack of research it might slip into oblivion Such a statement raises questions as to why it has taken the Guggenheim Foundation over half a century to resurrect Art of This Century in the form of two exhibitions held in Frankfurt and Venice or instigate its own research The book opens with an historical account of the development of the modern art museum as well as an overview of Kiesler TM s life and multidisciplinary oeuvre His association with selected contemporary architectural theorists and architects is looked at to establish whether they had any influence on his eclectic thinking This is followed by a summary of Kiesler TM s manifesto On Correalism and Biotechnique A Definition of a New Approach to Building Design 1937 1939 The main body of the work is a detailed description of Art of This Century The notion that Kiesler TM s innovative theories and designs might be better understood in a twenty first century architectural context is finally explored This book finally restores Frederick Kiesler to his rightful place in the history of twentieth century art and architecture By a careful analysis of his sometimes fraught collaboration with the mercurial Peggy Guggenheim Haines Cooke uncovers the fascinating story of Kiesler TM s ground breaking new vision for the display of abstract art rendered all the more poignant by its significant yet largely subliminal influence on much of the best in recent museum and gallery architecture Dr Jonathan Hale University of Nottingham

A Place in Europe Gabriela Petkova-Campbell,2009 This book explores the origins and development of museums and heritage sites in Bulgaria 1856 2006 in relation to societal change and major historic events It seeks to determine the key factors that promoted museum building and pinpoint the key individuals who were involved Original and archival sources interviews observations and field visits have provided a rich dataset which has been analysed to reveal how systems of power politics and social control affected how museums were created and subsequently managed Furthermore the Bulgarian case is situated within a broader European context and comparisons are made with the museum institutions in different countries in order to determine any specifics and particularities of Bulgarian museum building and operation The book demonstrates how different administrations have used museums to promote their own political views of the nation s cultural identity and in particular how the strategies employed by the Communist regime continue to influence the museum sector today The major contribution of this book lies in its use of archival documents This has resulted in a different account of the formation of Bulgarian museums on some occasions contradicting accepted histories It also introduces the little known Bulgarian museology to a wider audience which is seen to be important at a point in time when Bulgaria has become part of the European Union
