The Bloomsbury Handbook of Religion and Migration Rubina

Ramji, Alison Marshall, 2022-05-19 The Bloomsbury Handbook of Religion and Migration presents the story of religion and migration predominantly through the experiences of Muslims Sikhs Hindus and Buddhists considering intersectional issues including race ethnicity class gender and generation throughout Many chapters are grounded in embodied ethnography including participant observation fieldwork interviews oral history collections and qualitative analysis drawing on sociological and anthropological theory as well as non western and historical approaches to religion Chapters also chronicle migration in regional transnational multicultural and populist contexts examining everyday religiosity and religion across generations The volume includes chapters on Islam and Muslim identity Chinese and Vietnamese Buddhism Filipino and Korean religiosity and Polish Catholicism

Lesbian Geographies Kath Browne, Eduarda Ferreira, 2016-03-03 It has long been recognised that the spatialisation of sexual lives is always gendered Sexism and male dominance are a pervasive reality and lesbian issues are rarely afforded the same prominence as gay issues Thus lesbian geographies continue to be a salient axis of difference challenging the conflation of lesbians and gay men as well as the trope that homonormativity affects lesbians and gay men in the same ways This volume explores lesbian geographies in diverse geographical social and cultural contexts and presents new approaches using English as a working language but not as a cultural framework Going beyond the dominant trace of Anglo American perspectives of research in sexualities this book presents research in a wide range of countries including Australia Argentina Israel Canada USA Russia Poland Spain Hungary and Mexico

Protest Camps in International Context Gavin Brown, Anna Feigenbaum, Fabian Frenzel, Patrick McCurdy, 2017-03-29 From the squares of Spain to indigenous land in Canada protest camps are a tactic used around the world Since 2011 they have gained prominence in recent waves of contentious politics deployed by movements with wide ranging demands for social change Through a series of international and interdisciplinary case studies from five continents this topical collection is the first to focus on protest camps as unique organisational forms that transcend particular social movements contexts Whether erected in a park in Istanbul or a street in Mexico City the significance of political encampments rests in their position as distinctive spaces where people come together to imagine alternative worlds and articulate contentious politics often in confrontation with the state Written by a wide range of experts in the field the book offers a critical understanding of current protest events and will help better understanding of new global forms of democracy in action

The SAGE Handbook of Global Sexualities Zowie Davy, Ana Cristina Santos, Chiara Bertone, Ryan Thoreson, Saskia E. Wieringa, 2020-05-11 This two volume Handbook provides a major thematic overview of global sexualities spanning each of the continents and its study which is both reflective and prospective and includes traditional approaches and emerging themes The Handbook offers a robust theoretical underpinning and critical outlook on current global glocal and new sexualities and practices whilst offering an extensive reflection on current challenges and future directions of the field The broad coverage of topics engages with a range of theories and maintains a multi disciplinary framework

Routledge Handbook on Middle East Cities Haim Yacobi, Mansour Nasasra, 2019-07-01 Presenting the current debate about cities in the Middle East from Sana'a, Beirut and Jerusalem to Cairo, Marrakesh and Gaza, the book explores urban planning and policy, migration, gender and identity as well as politics and economics of urban settings in the region. This handbook moves beyond essentialist and reductive analyses of identity, urban politics, planning and development in cities in the Middle East and instead offers critical engagement with both historical and contemporary urban processes in the region. Approaching cities as multi-dimensional sites, products of political processes, knowledge production and exchange, and local and global visions as well as spatial artefacts. Importantly, in the different case studies and theoretical approaches, there is no attempt to idealise urban politics, planning and everyday life in the Middle East, which, as with many other cities elsewhere, are also situations of contestation and violence, but rather to highlight how cities in the region and especially those which are understudied revolve around issues of housing, infrastructure, participation and identity amongst other concerns. Analysing a variety of cities in the Middle East, the book is a significant contribution to Middle East Studies. It is an essential resource for students and academics interested in Geography, Regional and Urban Studies of the Middle East.

Making Space for Queer-Identifying Religious Youth Yvette Taylor, 2016-03-24 Making Space for Queer-Identifying Religious Youth charts young people's understanding of religion, investigating the experiences, choices and identities of queer, lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender youth involved in inclusive churches. Rather than assume that sexuality and religion, and in this case Christianity, are separate and divergent paths, this book explores how they might mutually and complexly construct one another in times of religious sexual citizenship. Taylor presents a methodological discussion on the public sociology of religion and sexuality studies and provides an illustrative focus on substantive fields often separated in disciplinary discourses. These examples illustrate how participation shapes identifications, how marginalization and discrimination are managed, and how religion and sexuality serve as vehicles for various forms of belonging, identification and expression. Religion and sexuality are mutually constructed through gendered spaces, online spaces and sensory spaces.

International Encyclopedia of Human Geography, 2019-11-29 International Encyclopedia of Human Geography, Second Edition, Fourteen Volume Set embraces diversity by design and captures the ways in which humans share places and view differences based on gender, race, nationality, location and other factors. Young People and the Diversity of (Non)Religious Identities in International Perspective Elisabeth Arweck, Heather Shipley, 2019-07-11

This volume brings together current research on young people non religion and diversity documenting the forms young people s stances may take and the social or spatial contexts in which these may be formed The social contexts studied include the family school and faith communities The spatial contexts include sub urban and rural geographies and places of worship and pilgrimage Youth and non religion are an area of academic interest that has been gaining increasing attention especially as it pertains to youthful expressions of non religion and identities As research on religion and young people spans and expands across academic disciplines and across geographic areas comparative approaches and perspectives such as presented in this volume offer important spaces for reflecting about the experience of religiosity among young people and the ways they are learning about and developing non religious identities Building bridges geographically and methodologically

this volume provides an international perspective on religion and nonreligion among young people offering a diversity of religious and nonreligious perspectives Sexuality and Citizenship Diane Richardson,2017-09-18 Sexual citizenship has become a key concept in the social sciences It describes the rights and responsibilities of citizens in sexual and intimate life including debates over equal marriage and women s human rights as well as shaping thinking about citizenship more generally But what does it mean in a continually changing political landscape of gender and sexuality In this timely intervention Diane Richardson examines the normative underpinnings and varied critiques of sexual citizenship asking what they mean for its future conceptual and empirical development as well as for political activism Clearly written the book shows how the field of sexuality and citizenship connects to a range of important areas of debate including understandings of nationalism identity neoliberalism equality governmentality individualization colonialism human rights globalization and economic justice Ultimately this book calls for a critical rethink of sexual citizenship Illustrating her argument with examples drawn from across the globe Richardson contends that this is essential if scholars want to understand the sexual politics that made the field of sexuality and citizenship studies what it is today and to enable future analyses of the sexual inequalities that continue to mark the global order The Giant Hero in Medieval Literature Tina Marie Boyer,2016-05-18 In The Giant Hero in Medieval Literature Tina Boyer counters the monstrous status of giants by arguing that they are more broadly legible than traditionally believed Building on an initial analysis of St Augustine s City of God Bernard of Clairvaux s deliberations on monsters and marvels and readings in Tomasin von Zerclaere s Welsche Gast provide insights into the spectrum of antagonistic and heroic roles that giants play in the courtly realm This approach places the figure of the giant within the cultural and religious confines of the twelfth and thirteenth centuries and allows an in depth analysis of epics and romances through political social religious and gender identities tied to the figure of the giant Sources range from German to French English and Iberian works The Queer Politics of Pride Daniel Conway,2025-10-16 The first book to explore the queer politics of LGBTQ Pride in global terms exploring the impacts controversies and potential of Pride across the world Drawing from extensive fieldwork in South Africa South and East Asia Cuba and New York The Queer Politics of Pride explores and conceptualises the contemporary politics of LGBTQ Pride and queer activism in global contexts Building on critical queer scholarship the book includes the perspectives and critiques of grassroots queer activists and applies contemporary social political and international theory to conceptualise Pride as part of the global processes of capitalism and the socio political and spatial dynamics of gentrification By exploring the politics and controversies of Pride Conway addresses broader questions about the contemporary LGBTQ advocacy movement including the influence and place of corporate sponsorship and advocacy relationship with state and international institutions and the rise of an LGBTQ global elite Queer Urbanisms in Wilhelmine and Weimar Germany Mathias Foit,2023-12-28 This book explores the queer history of the easternmost provinces of the German Reich regions that used to be German but which now mostly belong to Poland in the first third of the twentieth century a period roughly corresponding to the duration of Germany's first queer movement 1897-1933. While the amount of queer historical studies examining entire towns and cities in the German Reich has grown to an impressive size since the 1990s, most of that research concerns firstly the usual large metropolises such as Berlin, Hamburg or Cologne and secondly municipalities located in Germany proper that is within its modern borders, not those of the German state in the first half of the twentieth century. Smaller cities, not to mention rural areas in particular, have received very little scholarly attention. This book is therefore one of the first to examine queer history that of spaces, culture, sociability and political groups specifically from this geographical perspective.
